Religious Ramblings Grumpy

EPIPHANY
JANUARY 5, 2014

fr Piers Linley imagines that he is a camel.

My name is Grumpy and I am a camel. Camels are proverbially evil tempered. I must admit I used to deserve to be called Grumpy because I was the worst-tempered camel of them all. But I'm not now, I've changed and I am going to tell you how and when I changed.

I live a very long distance away to the East. My master's name is Melchior and he is the Prime Minister of the kingdom where we live. He had two friends, Balthazar and Caspar. He and his friends are very interested in astronomy. One day - I was listening in to their conversation - Melchior told his friends that a very, very bright star had arisen in the sky and that must mean that a very, very great king had been born. 'Lets go and pay him homage' said Balthazar and Caspar.

I started to grumble loudly because I could see that a journey was going to mean more work for me! And so it proved. My master, Balthazar and Caspar talked about what gifts to take to the new king. Gold obviously. Frankincense - an incense with a lovely smell when it is burnt. And the third gift was myrrh which is very precious - curious this choice because it is used to anoint the dead.

Melcher said, 'Grumpy, you're the biggest and worst tempered of all the camels, so you must carry the heaviest load - the gold.' So off we went.

A cold coming we had of it,
Just the worst time of the year
For a journey, and such a long journey:
The ways deep and the weather sharp,
The very dead of winter.

I soon got sore-footed and more grumpy than usual.

A hard time we had of it.
At the end we preferred to travel all night,
With the voices singing in our cars, saying
That this was all folly.

But that star went before us all the way. And we came to a small village called Bethlehem. And there was the star standing over the entrance to a cave, a stable. So we knew we had arrived.

Melchior, my master, always looks after his camels very well - so he took us into the cave and fed us and gave us water. So I was able to see and hear what happened. We camels had to kneel to be unloaded. For some reason we didn't get up again but remained kneeling.

My master and his friends presented their gifts to Joseph and to Mary. There was the flutter of angels' wings and the sound of their sweet voices. Some shepherds had come also and were playing a lullaby on their pipes and cuddling their lambs. Everyone was rejoicing at the birth of so great a king. But I couldn't see the king - not at first. Then in the middle of all this - in the manger from which the ox and the ass were snatching a little hay I saw a baby, the baby. And he wasn't taking any notice of what was going on.

And I realised that what was so great about the new king - that he was just a baby who had come to share our life. He wasn't going to be a great proud tyrant with a splendid court but was to dwell amongst us.

So we all worshipped as did the ox and the ass and the shepherds.

We didn't stay long. But we all stepped out with a light heart. OK, part of it was me getting the gold of my back. But I felt so different. They still call me Grumpy. But I'm not. I'm now the most mild-tempered camel anyone has ever known. So that baby king did something for me - he saved me from my evil temper. Strange isn't it?

I wonder if I will ever travel that way again - perhaps not. But I pray daily - oh yes, we camels pray - you'd pray if you had to walk so many miles across the desert. I pray that one day I might see that baby - grown up now, of course - again.

All this was a long time ago, I remember. But I would do it again.

fr. Piers Linley is Chaplain to the Dominican Sisters at Bushey in Hertfordshire.

Gathering Hark the Herald Angels Sing

Hark, the herald angels sing
 "Glory to the newborn King!
 Peace on earth and mercy mild
 God and sinners reconciled"
 Joyful, all ye nations rise
 Join the triumph of the skies
 With the angelic host proclaim:
 "Christ is born in Bethlehem"
 Hark! The herald angels sing
 "Glory to the newborn King!"

Christ by highest heav'n adored
 Christ the everlasting Lord!
 Late in time behold Him come
 Offspring of a Virgin's womb
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see
 Hail the incarnate Deity
 Pleased as man with man to dwell
 Jesus, our Emmanuel
 Hark! The herald angels sing
 "Glory to the newborn King!"

Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
 Hail the Son of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all He brings
 Ris'n with healing in His wings
 Mild He lays His glory by Born that man no more may die
 Born to raise the sons of earth
 Born to give them second birth
 Hark! The herald angels sing
 "Glory to the newborn King!"

3. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Isaiah 60:1-6

Darkness covers the earth, and heavy clouds hang over the people. But the light has come, and the glory of the Lord shines bright.

Psalm Give Your Wisdom Tom Conry

- 1) Give your wisdom, O God, to the King. Grant your justice to the King's own Son that he may judge your people in honor and the poor in the light of your truth.
- 2) Then shall the mountains deliver your justice; then shall the hills be covered with peace; then shall the harvest yield peace in abundance, while the lights of the heavens endure.
- 3) All the kings of the earth shall offer him homage, all the mighty on earth shall kneel at his name; ev'ry nation and coastland shall bow at his bidding, from the river to the ends of the earth.
- 4) For he shall save the least among people, he shall be friend to those who have none. For the nameless forgotten, his word within reach, and his hand on the side of the poor.
- 5) And they shall live amid harvests of plenty. Their grain and their fruit as grass on the earth; and people shall sing in the midst of their feasting, "Take heart at the name of the Lord."
- 6) Blessed be God, the Lord of all ages, whose name alone works wonders on earth: a city of peace, both now and forever, Amen.

Gloria Mass From Age To Age C. DeSilva

1. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Verse 2

Second Reading Ephesians 3:2-3, 5-6

In Christ Jesus, Gentiles and Jews are co-heirs and co-sharers in the saving promise.

Gospel Acc. Celtic Alleluia: O'Carroll / Walker

Gospel Matthew 2:1-12

The magi from the east followed the star until it stopped still over the stable where Jesus lay.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty,
 Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God,
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.
