Making the Journey

JANUARY 6, 2013

fr. Allan White invites us to share the journey of the Shepherds and the Magi to the cradle of the Infant Jesus.

In the Christmas story we traditionally see two journeys to the manger of the infant king.

The shepherds were so captivated by the message of the angel that they left their sheep and made the journey to see this wonder that had come to pass in the city of David. They left their livelihoods and security; they found a new centre for their lives in the manger of him through whom all things were made.

The Magi came from the land where the sun rises; they had to turn their back on the light in order to come to the true light who is Christ. More than that, they had to travel by night following the flickering light of a star. Darkness makes everything the same, it is impossible to see details, to know where you are, to see where you are going. These wise men have to learn a new wisdom. They are amongst the first disciples in the New Testament.

Discipleship is for all, so there has to be another invitation to Herod and to all Jerusalem. Jerusalem was the city of the house of God, the place where God dwelt in the temple in the midst of his people. It was Herod who had built the Temple, this house of God, and Herod tended to regard God as his tenant. These mysterious strangers, who came from the edge of the world to the place the Jewish people considered the centre of the world, threatened Herod’s control of his kingdom and of the temple.

The Magi had made a journey in the dark for about three years. It had been an arduous journey. Herod and all Jerusalem were infinitely more privileged than these gentile strangers because he knew in a few minutes what it had taken the wise men from the east so long to discover. He simply summoned his court theologians and asked ‘where is the Messiah to be born?’ They took out their scrolls, juggled their texts and came up with the answer in a few minutes: Bethlehem of Judah. Herod knew, he had access to a higher wisdom; the Magi followed the star, Herod knew God’s word itself, but he never heard it. He did not make the journey. The centre of his life was his throne, his power, his possession of God’s house. He could not abandon that centre, that is why he was troubled and all Jerusalem with him. They could not imagine that the world had a new centre; the centre of the world was now the cradle of an infant.

Leaving Jerusalem the Magi found and followed their star and it led them to where the child was. Their reaction was different from Herod’s: he was troubled, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy. They then entered the house; Matthew chooses his words well. This is the house of God, not the temple in Jerusalem, but this house sheltering the cradle of the king who will shepherd his people, there they offered their gifts. So, there are three invitations to worship the infant king, the shepherds and the wise men make the journey, they make the journey from the periphery to the centre. There is a third invitation to Herod and all Jerusalem, but Herod and all Jerusalem do not make the journey. In the Incarnation the world is turned inside out the periphery becomes the centre.

fr. Allan White was formerly Prior Provincal of the English Province of the Order of Preachers and is currently Senior Chaplain and Director of the Catholic Centre at New York University (NYU).

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY
JANUARY 6, 2013

The Catholic Community at Stanford University

Gloria   Mass From Age To Age            C. DeSilva

First Reading      Is 60:1-6
Darkness covers the earth, and heavy clouds hang over the people. But the light has come, and the glory of the Lord shines bright.

Second Reading    Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6
In Christ Jesus, Gentiles and Jews are co-heirs and co-sharers in the saving promise.

Gospel     Mt 2:1-12
The magi from the east followed the star until it stopped still over the house at Bethlehem. They paid homage to the child and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Psalm 72    Give Your Wisdom         (Tom Conry)
1) Give your wisdom, O God, to the King. Grant your justice to the King's own Son that he may judge your people in honor and the poor in the light of your truth.
2) Then shall the mountains deliver your justice; then shall the hills be covered with peace; then shall the harvest yield peace in abundance, while the lights of the heavens endure.
3) All the kings of the earth shall offer him homage, all the mighty on earth shall kneel at his name; ev'ry nation and coastland shall bow at his bidding, from the river to the ends of the earth.
4) For he shall save the least among people, he shall be friend to those who have none. For the nameless forgotten, his word within reach, and his hand on the side of the poor.
5) And they shall live amid harvests of plenty. Their grain and their fruit as grass on the earth; and people shall sing in the midst of their feasting, "Take heart at the name of the Lord."
6) Blessed be God, the Lord of all ages, whose name alone works wonders on earth: a city of peace, both now and forever, Amen.

Gospel Acclamation    Celtic Alleluia         (F O'Carroll)

The magi from the east followed the star until it stopped still over the house at Bethlehem. They paid homage to the child and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory O Little Town of Bethlehem

1. O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.

2. O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.
For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep the Angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

3. How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His Heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4. Where children pure and happy
Pray to the blessed Child,
Where misery cries out to Thee,
Son of the Mother mild;
Where Charity stands watching
And Faith holds wide the door,
The dark night wakes, the glory breaks,
And Christmas comes once more.

5. O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray!
Cast out our sin and enter in,

Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels,
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel!

Let every heart prepare Him room,
And Heaven and nature sing,
And Heaven and nature sing,
And Heaven, and Heaven, and Heaven, and nature sing.

Joy to the World, the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love,

Communion    The First Noel    carol

1. The Shepherds were kept in the fields where they lay; In fields where they lay, keep-ing their sheep, On a dark, cold win- ter’s night, that was so deep.

2. They came from country to country to tell the good news that was to be.
   From coun-try to coun-try, The star did shine so bright, O’er the hills and plains.

3. And they came to see the Child, the Word become flesh, And to the inn they came, With shepherds they did take, to the inn they went, In shep-herds they did see, And to the inn they went,
   and to the inn they went,

4. In Bethlehem, in the manger, In Beth-le-hem,
   In Beth-le-hem,

5. The angels, the shepherds, The an-gels did say,
   The an-gels did say,
   The an-gels did say,

6. Was to them a guid-ing star, Was to them a guid-ing star, Was to them a guid-ing star,
   was to them a guid-ing star,
