fr Neil Ferguson ponders on the journey of the Magi to Bethlehem.

One of the good things about travelling is that it both dislocates and disconcerts us. The unique combination of stress, boredom and expectation can reduce us to nervous wrecks but also open us to experiencing the world afresh. Not only do we travel to see 'new things', but by travelling we sometimes end up seeing things anew. Even things that we thought were familiar, we can see them as if for the first time when we return home, or when we think about them from far away.

This disconcerting nature of travel is captured well in TS Eliot's The Journey of the Magi. Of course, the Magi are not on any old journey, but are seeking the person who will fulfil ancient prophecy. But having travelled to find a king, they encounter a child in a stable. Common shepherds have arrived before these Persian gentlemen. They have to go home by another route and unwittingly leave a trail of grief and destruction behind them. On going home, they realise they do not feel at ease in their own culture; their journey has changed them.

Of course, these disconcerting elements are mixed with the beautiful and purely positive side to this wonderful feast. The universal nature of the call to salvation, which was always part of the preaching of the prophets, is expressed in the reading from Isaiah. 'The nations come to your light, and the kings to your dawning brightness.' The gifts they bring express the divine, regal and priestly sacrificial role of the child they encounter.

The inherent plausibility of the story is given an interesting fillip by the Roman poet Horace, writing just before the birth of Christ. In one of the most famous poems of antiquity he advises his friend not to worry about the length of his life, nor to ask the Babylonian astrologers for any predictions or readings from the stars.

Stargazing, then, was the sort of thing wise men from the East were famous for doing. Not only did their stellar cartography help them navigate the ocean of the desert, they tried also to see where time and eternity would touch and go. Was there not an ancient prophecy, spoken by a Gentile, about the star who would arise out of Jacob? Another ancient prophecy spoken in persona Christi is preserved in the Apocalypse (22:16): 'I am the root and stock of David, the bright and morning star.'

Ironically, although pilgrimage is an integral part of Christianity, we don't have to travel to find Christ, he has already travelled to find us. By the gift of the Spirit, the blessed Trinity dwells within us. The ocean of our soul has been sounded and charted by the God who loves and creates us. The 17th century cavalier poet John Cleveland satirised the mania for travelling to the 'New' world to find gold and silver, while the 'black gold' which was coal, could be found in plenty at home. It's partially an attack on preferring the exotic over the domestic:

England's a perfect world, has Indies too;
Correct your maps, Newcastle is Peru.

In two simple lines, Cleveland has not only disconcerted and dislocated and superimposed opposite sides of the world, but has upturned whole world views. The birth and epiphany of the child of Bethlehem does the same to an infinitely greater degree. Correct your maps. Our life as Christians is a constant correcting of our maps.

Of course, we have Jesus Christ, revealed today as true God and Man, he who is the Way, the Truth and the Life; but often other vistas tempt us, tales of earthly paradises, but only Christ will satisfy us, if we redraw our maps and redirect our steps.

So whether we are great travellers or prefer to stay at home, we have both a clear destination, eternity; and we have the means of getting there, the indwelling of the Blessed Trinity. Even in this life, our hearts and minds can become a Bethlehem where Christ is continually born by the gift of faith. 'Moreover, we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the Morning Star rises in your hearts' (2 Peter 2:19).

Priory of Our Holy Father Saint Dominic, London.*

GENERAL COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Religious Education for Children:

Our program continues on Sunday mornings, with a new-parent orientation offered on Sunday, Jan. 22. This program is for registered members of the community whose children are ages 3-13. It includes sacramental preparation. For more information, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Spanish Mass:

Our next monthly Mass in Spanish will be celebrated on Sunday, January 22, at 3:00pm in the side chapel of Memorial Church. All are welcome to attend!

Sacrament of the Sick at Masses:

We will celebrate this sacrament at all the Masses on Sunday, Feb. 5. Please invite anyone who wishes to receive the sacrament to attend this weekend. The sacrament is also available on an individual basis by contacting one of the parish priests.

New Training for Liturgical Ministers:

We welcome anyone who is interested in joining the choir, serving as lectors, greeters, altar servers, or eucharistic ministers. If you've managed to survive the first quarter at Stanford and can now think about the REST of your life, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu. Service can take place around your schedule. The rewards for ministry are great--serving the Lord, deepening your bond to the community, making new friends!

High School Confirmation:

We are assessing the need for a high school confirmation group. If your high school-age child would be interested in receiving the sacrament this coming April 29th, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu, as soon as possible.

Altar Servers:

We are looking for 4 students to help with the ministry of altar serving for the 4:30 Sunday Mass. You would be scheduled about every 4 weeks and trained for special liturgies such as Holy Week, in addition to the Sunday Masses. Altar servers arrive at 3:45 to help with set up. This is a vital ministry to our liturgies, so if you could help out once a month, we would be grateful. For info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Greeting Ministers Needed for 4:30 Mass:

We need 6 more friendly faces to complete our greeting ministry roster at the 4:30 Mass. This is such an important ministry, as we welcome all who pass through our doors on Sunday. It is very rewarding, as you have the opportunity to meet the face of Christ present in his people. You would be scheduled approximately every 3-4 weeks. For info, contact Iris Clark, iris.ccas@live.com.

Adult Confirmation beginning in January!

Preparation for receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation for Stanford students, faculty, staff and registered Permanent Community members will begin on Wednesday, January 11, 2012. The process entails 16 90-minute classes over the course of 20 weeks, from 7:30-9:00pm in the Common Room in the CIRCLE. Confirmation will be celebrated in Sunday April 29, 2012 .....

Called & Gifted: Topic 1: Deepen Your Faith

Coming soon to our parish is an opportunity for each of us to deepen our relationship with Jesus and to discover God's plan for our lives. In the Called & Gifted discernment process you will learn that every lay Christian—each baptized person without exception—has been given a unique and deeply personal call to work with our Lord. Discerning your call will give you a new perspective on your life and will help you to be more fulfilled in your work and in your relationships. Our parish is sponsoring a teaching team from the Catherine of Siena Institute in Colorado Springs to offer the introductory Called & Gifted workshop, which will be on Friday, and Saturday, (Feb 10 (7-9pm) & 11 (9am-4pm). Everyone is invited to participate. To register or find out more, email Father Isaiah Mary frisaiah@stanford.edu

Easiest ministry in the history of CCAS:

Father Isaiah Mary, the Voice of Catholic Cardinal Reflections (the Podcast of the Catholic Community), is looking for a few able-bodied souls to go the 4:30 Mass, sit in one of the lofts during the Liturgy of the Word, and press two buttons, one before & one after, the preaching of that Sunday. In other words, he's looking for some sound techs. If you are interested in BECOMING FAMOUS, contact Fr. Isaiah Mary. frisaiah@stanford.edu

Next Spanish Mass - Sunday January 22 - 3pm

Wedding Anniversary Mass:

First Reading Isaiah 60:1-6

Darkness covers the earth, and heavy clouds hang over the people. But the light has come, and the glory of the Lord shines bright.

Psalm 72 Give Your Wisdom (Tom Conry)

- 1) Give your wisdom, O God, to the King.
Grant your justice to the King's own Son that he may judge your people in honor and the poor in the light of your truth.
- 2) Then shall the mountains deliver your justice;
then shall the hills be covered with peace;
then shall the harvest yield peace in abundance,
while the lights of the heavens endure.
- 3) All the kings of the earth shall offer him homage,
all the mighty on earth shall kneel at his name;
ev'ry nation and coastland shall bow at his bidding,
from the river to the ends of the earth.
- 4) For he shall save the least among people,
he shall be friend to those who have none.
For the nameless forgotten, his word within reach,
and his hand on the side of the poor.
- 5) And they shall live amid harvests of plenty.
Their grain and their fruit as grass on the earth;
and people shall sing in the midst of their feasting,
"Take heart at the name of the Lord."
- 6) Blessed be God, the Lord of all ages,
whose name alone works wonders on earth:
a city of peace, both now and forever,
Amen.

Gospel Matthew 2:1-12

The magi from the east followed the star until it stopped still over the house. They entered, found the child with Mary, prostrated themselves, did him homage, and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Preparation of Gifts What Child Is This? (carol)

1. What Child is this who, laid to rest
On Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom Angels greet with anthems sweet,
While shepherds watch are keeping?

This, this is Christ the King,
Whom shepherds guard and Angels sing;
Haste, haste, to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the Son of Mary.

2. Why lies He in such mean estate,
Where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christians, fear, for sinners here
The silent Word is pleading.

Nails, spear shall pierce Him through,
The cross be borne for me, for you.
Hail, hail the Word made flesh,
The Babe, the Son of Mary.

3. So bring Him incense, gold and myrrh,
Come peasant, king to own Him;
The King of kings salvation brings,
Let loving hearts enthrone Him.

Raise, raise a song on high,
The virgin sings her lullaby.
Joy, joy for Christ is born,
The Babe, the Son of Mary.

Communion O Little Town of Bethlehem (carol)

1. O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.

2. O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.
For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep the Angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

3. How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His Heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4. Where children pure and happy
Pray to the blessed Child,
Where misery cries out to Thee,
Son of the Mother mild; I
Where Charity stands watching
And Faith holds wide the door,
The dark night wakes, the glory breaks,
And Christmas comes once more.

5. O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray!
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels,
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel!

Kings Came Riding (carol)

Over the desert and over the sea,
Kings came riding, kings came riding,
One, two, and three.

One in a ship with a silver mast;
The fishermen wondered as he went past.
One on a horse with a saddle of gold;
The children came running to behold.
One came walking over the sand
With a casket of treasure held in his hand.

Over the desert and over the sea,
Kings came riding, kings came riding,
One, two, and three.

All the people said, "Where go they?"
But the kings went forward
All through the day.
Night came on as those kings went by.
They shone like the gleaming stars in the sky.
Over the desert and over the sea,
Kings came riding, kings came riding,
One, two, and three.

Recessional Joy to the World (carol)

Joy to the World , the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And Heaven and nature sing,
And Heaven and nature sing,
And Heaven, and Heaven, and nature sing.

Joy to the World, the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love,
And wonders of His love,
And wonders, wonders, of His love.
