Some people have a lot of magic in their lives. Tables are magically set, heating just works, clothes are cleaned and ironed, and the most of the things they need just appear. At Christmas the magic works overtime. All sorts of delightful things spring up as if from nowhere. Where does it all come from? How did these delights get here? There is an easy answer to this and it is in the Gospel of today. “The servants knew where the wine came from.” So isn’t there any magic then? Is it just the product of hard work by the people throughout the ages who have to serve.

That isn’t quite what the Gospel today says. The full quote is, “The servants who had drawn the water knew.” There is magic in this story but there is also hard work and hard service. It inverts the normal order of things. Normally it is those who are receiving service to whom it all seems very miraculous. In this story it is those who serve, those who usually understand the process, because they are part of the process, who see that something wonderful has happened. It wasn’t easy to do as it took a lot of work to draw up so much water from a well, which is what the servants were being asked to do. It wasn’t clear why they were doing this. Why things are done, was not for servants to know, only how things were done, but this time the servants would be the ones who didn’t know how. The steward, the master magician of the feast, would be puzzled by the order the wine came in but not where it came from. The guests would just be happy to receive more wine. The servants alone would know that this wine had seemed to come from nowhere. Not entirely from nowhere, since it had been water and one thing the Christ never does is to cause things to pop into existence. He came to redeem and transform creation and so his miracles are always a restoration or a transformation of something which already existed. In fact to simply create new things would be to cast doubt on the fundamental goodness of God’s creation.

The miracles is called the first of the signs, but commentators have puzzled over how a sign which no-one noticed could be a sign. How did it reveal the glory of Jesus? I think we need to ask who the sign was for? The passage ends by saying that the disciples believed in him, so we could say that the sign was for them. We could say that the sign was for the servants who knew where the wine came from. This is true but it is also true that the servants were part of the sign. The whole miracle of Cana was not that water changed into wine but that servants should be instruments of the changing by Jesus of water into wine. There are many miracles recorded in the Gospels which Jesus carries out on his own but this miracle, like the miracles of the multiplication of loaves and fishes, is a miracle which requires the co-operation of others.

It helps us to understand why the Eucharist is not, as some would have it, a magical rite. The magician seeks to control reality, to be its master. The Eucharist is an act of service. If the Eucharist were magic, the presiding priest would be in control of the elements. Instead, like the servants at Cana, the priest is himself one of the elements of the miracle, along with the bread and wine, placing himself under the power of God. There used to be a rite of ordination, where the ends of the stole were wrapped over one another by the Bishop, who would say, “Receive the yoke of the Lord, for His yoke is sweet and His burden is light.” The Greek word for servant gives us the modern word, ‘deacon’, and no-one becomes a priest who has not first been a deacon. This miracle was the first sign because it teaches us the first lesson. If you want to see miracles, you must serve.

Interested in Liturgical Ministries?
Have you ever thought it might be rewarding to be involved in a “closer way” with Mass? Get to know other community members better? Serve the community in a specialized ministry? The following ministries are available for you to consider: greeting (especially at the 4:30 Mass), eucharistic ministry, lectoring, altar serving, and music ministry (singers and instrumentalists). Training is provided and for most ministries you are scheduled about every 3-4 weeks. Students, this is a great way to continue ministry begun in your home parish, or a way to learn how to take part fully in the life of the Church. For non-students, Holy Week falls during Spring Break this year—we are going to need even more “permanent community” members to volunteer for these special liturgies. For info, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

GREETING MINISTERS NEEDED FOR 4:30 MASS:
We need 6-8 new greeting ministers to help us welcome those who come through our doors for the 4:30 Sunday Mass in Memorial Church. Could you be the welcoming face to our community and visitors? Training is provided. You would be scheduled about every 3 weeks. Please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu, if you can help with this important ministry.

PIANO ACCOMPANISTS NEEDED:
We are looking for 2-3 piano accompanists to work with the 4:30 and 10:00pm choirs. The commitment would be bi-monthly, arranged around your schedule. Sight-reading and accompanying skills are necessary. Choir members, directors, and congregation will all be grateful to you for sharing your gifts with the community. For info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

DOMINICAN “COME & SEE” VOCATIONS WEEKEND:
Have you thought about entering religious life or studying for the priesthood? Come to the Dominican Vocations Weekend at St. Albert’s Priory in Oakland, California. 4pm Friday, March 1 – 1pm Sunday, March 3. St. Albert’s is the house of studies for the Dominicans in the Western US. Meet the brothers studying for the priesthood, visit the school and novitiate, listen to presentations on the religious and priestly life, and spend time in prayer. For more information or to register contact Fr. Steven Maekawa, OP. (510) 596-1821, vocations@opwest.org

LITURGY OF THE HOURS:
8:20-8:45am, Mo-Fr, East side stairwell of Memorial Church. “It is now the hour for us to rise from sleep.” (Rom 13:11) Come consecrate your day to our Lord by praying the Liturgy of the Hours before class! We first hear a short reading from the Roman Martyrology and then pray in accordance with the wisdom of St. Benedict (6. 543). Contact George vidal@stanford.edu for more information.

KOREAN CATHOLIC AT STANFORD (KC@S):
KC@S is a Korean Catholic community at Stanford consisting of a number of Korean undergraduate students, post-doc, and workers around Stanford. During this winter quarter, we gather every Friday night to have a prayer meeting with various activities to deepen our faith together. Also, lunch gathering is planned on Tuesday noon at Thai cafe. For more information, contact Eun-Soo at eschoi@stanford.edu.

Grad Wine and Cheese:
Monday, January 21, 7pm. Join us for a wine and cheese social near campus. Since we’re not having our regular Catholicism 101, we thought it would be great to get together. Come and meet other grads from the community at the Annex, located at 1565 Stanford Ave in Palo Alto. Please let Lourdes know if you want to bring something to share, appetizer, dessert or drinks. There’s no need to bring anything other than yourself, but it’s good to know for planning purposes. Contact Lourdes at lalonso@stanford.edu.

CATH-101:
There will be no Catholicism 101 this week as our normal meeting place is not available due to the MLK holiday. Our next Catholicism 101 will be on Monday, January 28. Br. Peter Hannah, OP will present “The Dignity of Human Life.”

Grad Bible Study:
Sundays at 6:30pm. All are welcome to a grad student Bible study. Meet at Chiara’s in Escondido Village building 128, Apt 104 at 6:30pm. Join the list at catholic_grad_bible_study@lists.stanford.edu.

Volunteer Opportunities
St. Anthony’s Soup Kitchen:
The Catholic Community at Stanford is committed to serving the needy, elderly and homeless at St. Anthony’s Soup Kitchen in Menlo Park. If you are interested in volunteering on Saturday January 26th or Saturday February 2nd from 8:30am until 1:00pm, please contact Michael Bova at mpbova2001@yahoo.com to have a volunteer position reserved for you. In general, the CCAS has the first and fourth Saturday’s of the month reserved for us at St. Anthony’s. So plan your schedules in advance, follow the example of Jesus, and please join us in helping those in need.

GRADS and UNDER GRADS
Spring Break “Immigration Immersion”:
March 23-30, 2013
Apply for this year’s Alternative Spring Break with the Catholic Community!
Spend the week in Arizona immersed in learning about immigration issues and the impact on the lives of people living along the US-Mexican border. We will spend time engaged in conversations with people and groups most impacted by these issues. Our journey will begin in Phoenix, Arizona where we will meet with young activists and take us through Tucson, then Nogales to meet with Border Patrol agents, Humanitarian groups and community leaders.
This trip includes:
• Daily prayer and reflection
• Engaging discussions
• Air travel to and from Phoenix, Arizona
• Accommodations with host families in Phoenix and Nogales
• Meals throughout the week
Total cost will be covered by participant fees (approx. $200), The Stanford Fund and other fundraising.
Applications are due TODAY, Sunday, January 20, 2013. Space is limited so please apply early. Contact Lourdes Alonso with any questions at lalonso@stanford.edu.

Calling all Catholic Undergrad Women:
Join us for a new women’s group to form a community of women seeking Christ and striving to grow closer to Him and to each other. This quarter we’re focusing on a different women of the Bible and the positive impact they can have on our lives. Meetings will be Thursdays at 7:30 pm in Granada 203. SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 20, 2013

Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Gloria

Gloria to God, glory to God in the highest. Glory to God, glory to God, and on earth peace to people, peace to people, people of good will.

First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

As a young man marries a bride, so the Lord will marry Israel. No longer will she be called “Forsaken,” for she is now the precious one of God and will be called “My Delight.”

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

There is one Spirit from whom come many gifts. Each person is given a different gift to use for the common good. We are all united in the one Spirit through our individual gifts.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia (F O’Carroll)

Gospel

John 2:1-11

Jesus and his mother were invited to a wedding feast at Cana. There he performed the first of his great signs, changing water into wine. Thus he revealed his glory to all.

Come My Way, My Truth, My Life

Herbert

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life; Such a way as gives us breath; Such a truth as ends all strife; Such a life as kills death.

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Joy, my Love, my Heart; Such a light as shows a feast; Such a joy as none can move; Such a love as none can part; Such a heart as joys in love.

Come My Way, My Truth, My Life

Herbert
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
