building community

a way of life

Sunday, January 24, 2016

When most of us think of Baptism, we think about immersion in Holy Water. However, for St. Paul, the water is secondary to something else — namely the Holy Spirit.

Specifically, Paul says, “For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.” It is this Spirit which makes us one, a unified body in Christ.

That is what makes us one, regardless of who we are. Paul uses the illustration of a human body to prompt us as to what it means to be part of a Catholic community of faith. We may not look the same, and we may not even function the same, but that is the key to our lives of stewardship. We are truly one, united through Baptism and united in Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis shares a story of a time he baptized the seven children of single mother. After the baptisms, she said to the Pope (to be) “Father, you make me feel so important,” to which the Pope replied, “Where do I come in? It is Jesus who makes you feel important.” We are one, and each of us is important, united through the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Holy Week Ministers Needed:

Holy Week falls during Spring Break this year, and many of our regular liturgical ministers will be away. If you are going to be on campus and could help serve the community during Holy Week as a greeter, lector, communion minister, choir member, or altar server, please contact Teresa Pleins, tpleins@stanford.edu. Training will be provided. The liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday are profoundly spiritual and life-giving. Come be a part of these graced moments in the life of the Church.

What Does Love Look Like?

A sense of loving and being loved is crucial to our physical and mental well-being. This homily series will look at some of the ways in which we experience love, or lack of it. How is God’s love shown to us? What is the role of mercy and forgiveness in our loving relationships with God and others? How do we recognize authentic love in our lives? And finally, what is love calling us to do? The second homily for this Sunday January 24 is titled: “Jesus’ Shortest Homily: Be Merciful.” The third homily in this series on January 31 is titled: “What Love is Not.”

Palms for Palm Sunday:

Please bring in any dried, blessed palms from previous year’s Palm Sunday Masses. We will collect and burn them for our Ash Wednesday ashes. Collection continues through Feb. 7.

Grads and Undergrads:

Catholic Community ASB, March 19-26, 2016

Apply for our Alternative Spring Break Trip to Seattle. We are returning for an immersion experience in a L’Arche community. L’Arche communities provide homes and workplaces where people with and without intellectual disabilities live and work together as peers; create inclusive communities of faith and friendship; and transform society through relationships that cross social boundaries. Space is limited so apply this week through the weekly email for this transforming experience. Contact Lourdes for more information, lalonso@stanford.edu.

Save the Date for our Liturgical Arts Presentation:

Lamentations: Images of War and Protest

A powerful look at contemporary questions surrounding violence, immigration, and suffering. Performances Feb. 2, Mission Santa Clara Church, 7:00pm AND Feb. 4, Stanford Memorial Church, 8:00pm. Free and open to the public. If you wish to support our efforts financially, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

Refrain
One bread, one cup, one bod-y of Christ, u-nit-ed in love.

One bread, one cup, one liv-ing sac-ri-fice poured out in your blood.

Ho-ly Spir-it, re-new us, that in each oth-er we may see you.

Gath-ered as one fam-'ly in love, one bread, one cup.

1. We all come before you now,
hungry for your healing touch.
Here we stand with open hearts,
thirsting for your love.
You are the one who fills our ev'ry need.
So with one voice we lift our hearts in unity.
2. As we gather at your table,
broken like the bread we share,
fill our hearts with your compassion
for a world in need of care.
You are the way. You are the life. You are the truth.
The source of our salvation, we find new life in you.

Bridge

When we go forth from this place of perfect peace, may your light shine in our lives for all the world to see.

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me
 Because the Lord has anointed me;
 He has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor,
 To heal the broken-hearted.
 To proclaim liberty to the captives
 And release to the prisoners,
 To announce a year of favor from the Lord
 And a day of vindication by our God.

So will the Lord God make justice and praise,
 So will the Lord God make justice and praise
 Spring up before the nations.

I rejoice heartily in the Lord.
 In my God is the joy of my soul;
 For he has clothed me with a robe of salvation,
 And wrapped me in a mantle of justice,
 Like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem,
 Like a bride bedecked with her jewels.
 As the earth springs forth its plants
 And a garden makes its growth spring up.

So will the Lord God make justice and praise,
 So will the Lord God make justice and praise
 Spring up before the nations.
