a way of life

Sunday, January 31, 2016

Often in this space, we tend to focus on the stewardship messages found in the Gospel reading or perhaps the Second Readings, many of which are letters written by St. Paul. However, on this Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, there is a simple statement in the First Reading from Jeremiah that echoes its strong message to each of us: "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you." (Jeremiah 1:5)

As much as we may wish to ignore it, or perhaps just forget it, God knows us in ways we do not even know ourselves. Jeremiah understood that God had called him to be a prophet; he had no choice, and he fulfilled God's wishes. Scripture speaks to us also nonetheless, as we are reminded in our reading from Jeremiah, the Lord does not just know who we are; He has plans for each of us.

This, of course, is where "free will" comes in. Whether we seek to understand God's plan for us and whether we choose to pursue it is totally up to us. To try to comprehend that vocation, that role, can be a humbling experience. It is not unrealistic for us to have thoughts of ourselves, which may not reach the level of God's plans for us; nevertheless, our task as good stewards is to recognize our gifts and to respond to God's call.

Permanent Community Prayer Group For Lent: Encountering Christ

Nancy Greenfield will be gathering together those who are interested in a Lenten commitment to pray together once a week as a small group. We hope to spend a little less time talking about Jesus and a little more time talking to Jesus. The group will meet around 9am on six Saturday mornings in Lent from February 13 through March 19 at Nancy Greenfield's house (1140 Bay Laurel Drive, Menlo Park). Please email Nancy at ngreenfield875@gmail.com if you are interested, and she will get back to you with details. Xavier Lavagetto, O.P. has been chosen as one of 800 such missionaries in the world, and one of the 100 chosen from the United States. Characteristics of the Missionaries are to be:

4. inspiring preachers of Mercy;
5. heralds of the joy of forgiveness;

Holy Week Ministers Needed:

Holy Week falls during Spring Break this year, and many of our regular liturgical ministers will be away. If you are going to be on campus and could help serve the community during Holy Week as a greeter, lector, communion minister, choir member, or altar server, please contact Teresa Pleins, tplains@stanford.edu. Training will be provided. The liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday are profoundly spiritual and life-giving. Come be a part of these graced moments in the life of the Church.

What Does Love Look Like?

A sense of loving and being loved is crucial to our physical and mental well-being. This homily series will look at some of the ways in which we experience love, or lack of it. How is God's love shown to us? What is the role of mercy and forgiveness in our loving relationships with God and others? How do we recognize authentic love in our lives? And finally, what is love calling us to do? The third homily in this series on January 31 is titled: "What Love is Not", and the homily for February 7 will explore what love is calling us to do for others.

Palms for Palm Sunday:

Please bring in any dried, blessed palms from previous year's Palm Sunday Masses. We will collect and burn them for our Ash Wednesday ashes. Collection continues through Feb. 7.

Save the Date for our Liturgical Arts Presentation: Lamentations: Images of War and Protest

A performance piece dramatizing the war poetry of the Jewish Bible, featuring The Catholic Community's choir, Dance for Change ensemble, readers and performers from Santa Clara University and Stanford. This is a multi-faceted arts presentation including beat poetry, percussion, song, dance, and dramatic reading that brings witness to the horrors of war through the eyes of its victims. A powerful look at contemporary questions surrounding violence, immigration, and suffering. Performances Feb. 2, Mission Santa Clara Church, 7:00pm AND Feb. 4, Stanford Memorial Church, 8:00pm. Free and open to the public. If you wish to support our efforts financially, please contact Teresa, tplains@stanford.edu.

First Reading Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you.

Psalm 40 To Do What Pleases You James Hansen

To do what pleas-es you, O God, to do what pleas-es you is my de-sire, my de-sire. my de-sire.

- 1) I called the Lord, my call was heard, the Lord leaned to listen.
Lifting me up from the frightening pit, out of the mud and the mire.
- 2) He anchored my feet upon the rock, making my footing secure.
Breathing new music into my mouth, singing the praise of our God.
- 3) "Then I said, Here I am, behold I come to do your will, O Lord, within this heart I bear your law, O Lord."

To do what pleases you is my desire,
your Word still lives within my inmost parts.
Your name is called among the gathering,
you know I am not cautious with your name.
Your treasured gifts are not held secretly;
but sung aloud, your love, your saving help.
In the great assembly now still I raise your name in love.

Knowing you as I do, I know you will not hide your face, O Lord,
I know my life is safe in you, O Lord, in you, O Lord.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
