a letter from our Bishop, January 27, 2012

Dear Friends,

I write to you concerning an alarming and serious matter that negatively impacts the Church in the United States directly, and that strikes at the fundamental right to religious liberty for all citizens of any faith. The federal government, which we profess to be “of, by, and for the people,” has just dealt a heavy blow to almost a quarter of those people—the Catholic population of the United States—and to the millions more who are served by the Catholic Church.

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services recently announced that almost all employers, including Catholic employers, will be forced to offer their employees health coverage that includes sterilization, abortion-inducing drugs, and contraception. Almost all health insurers will be forced to include those “benefits” in the health policies they write. And almost all individuals will be forced to buy that coverage as a part of their policies.

In so ruling, the Administration has cast aside the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, denying to Catholics our Nation’s first and most fundamental freedom, that of religious liberty. And as a result, unless this rule is overturned, we Catholics will be compelled either to violate our consciences, or to drop health coverage for our employees (and suffer the penalties for doing so), which is also unconscionable. The Administration’s sole concession was to give our institutions one year to comply.

We cannot comply with this unjust law. People of faith cannot be made second class citizens. We are already joined by our brothers and sisters of all faiths and many others of good will in this important effort to regain our religious freedom. Our parents and grandparents and this generation’s immigrants did not come to these shores to help build America’s cities and towns, its infrastructure and institutions, its enterprise and culture, only to have their posterity stripped of their God-given rights.

In generations past, the Church has always been able to count on the faithful to stand up and protect her sacred rights and duties. I hope and trust she can count on this generation of Catholics to do the same. Our children and grandchildren deserve nothing less. For these reasons, I would ask two things of you. First, as a community of faith we must commit ourselves to prayer and fasting that wisdom and justice may prevail, and religious liberty may be restored. Without God, we can do nothing; with God, nothing is impossible. Second, I would also recommend and ask you to visit www.usccb.org/conscience, to learn more about this severe assault on religious liberty, and how to contact Congress in support of legislation that would reverse the Administration’s decision.

Please join me in taking this action as soon as you can, indeed in the very near future. I pray God’s blessings upon you, your families and your loved ones, even as we renew our pursuit of the God-given gifts of freedom that we always pursue.

With every best wish and kind regard, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Patrick J. McGrath
Bishop of San José

GENERAL COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Palms Needed for Ashes:

If you have dried palms from previous Palm Sundays, please bring them to Mass the next two Sundays. We will burn them for the ashes on Ash Wednesday. Ash Wednesday is Feb. 22.

Sacrament of the Sick at Masses:

We will celebrate this sacrament at all the Masses on Sunday, Feb. 12. Please invite anyone who wishes to receive the sacrament to attend this weekend. The sacrament is also available on an individual basis by contacting one of the parish priests.

Reading Group:

Our next meeting is on Tuesday Feb. 7th at 7:30pm at the Gelpis' house on campus (870 Tolman Drive) to discuss Alice McDermott's Pulitzer Prize winning novel "Charming Billy." All are welcome to join the conversation.

New Training for Liturgical Ministers:

We welcome anyone who is interested in joining the choir, serving as lectors, greeters, altar servers, or eucharistic ministers. If you've managed to survive the first quarter at Stanford and can now think about the REST of your life, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu. Service can take place around your schedule. The rewards for ministry are great--serving the Lord, deepening your bond to the community, making new friends!

Altar Servers:

We are looking for 4 students to help with the ministry of altar serving for the 4:30 Sunday Mass. You would be scheduled about every 4 weeks and trained for special liturgies such as Holy Week, in addition to the Sunday Masses. Altar servers arrive at 3:45 to help with set up. This is a vital ministry to our liturgies, so if you could help out once a month, we would be grateful. For info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Greeting Ministers Needed for 4:30 Mass:

We need 6 more friendly faces to complete our greeting ministry roster at the 4:30 Mass. This is such an important ministry, as we welcome all who pass through our doors on Sunday. It is very rewarding, as you have the opportunity to meet the face of Christ present in his people. You would be scheduled approximately every 3-4 weeks. For info, contact Iris Clark, iris.ccas@live.com.

Tuesday Night Topics:

Where faith intersects with contemporary issues.

"How does the Church help you make moral decisions?"

A discussion led by Brother Peter J Hannah, OP, student brother of the Western Dominican Province.

Br. Peter will lead us into that very difficult, but very fascinating, area of our Catholic faith: the nature of the Church, and in particular the nature and function of her teaching Magisterium. In principle, Catholics believe something quite extraordinary about the Magisterium, namely that it enjoys protection from all error by a special charism of the Holy Spirit. This has a very controversial implication for our contemporary cultural context, namely, that Catholics are bound in conscience to believe anything the Magisterium teaches. Yet curiously, Catholics simultaneously believe in the inviolability of every person's conscience, that one cannot believe or do something that goes against conscience. What if my conscience leads me to believe the Magisterium is wrong on something? Br. Peter will help us sort through this difficult area, which will involve the broader questions of "ecclesiology" (what the "Church" is), moral theology (how I know what is right or wrong), and the relationship between faith and reason. Ultimately our Catholic faith neither asks us to abandon reason nor violate conscience, so understanding what the Magisterium is within these assumptions becomes a vital part of understanding who we are as Catholics. Br. Peter will present material but also encourage open discussion. Come ready to participate! Meeting at the Common Room of Old Union, on February 7, Tuesday Night at 7:30pm

Korean Catholic At Stanford (KC@S) bible study:

We welcome anyone who is Korean or able to speak Korean interested in growing in faith. This Friday we start the bible study with Mark using the supplementary book, Yeo-Jung. It would be great to read the first chapter of Mark and the book. We also have a lunch meeting on Thursday this winter quarter. For more information, contact Eun-Soo at eschoi@stanford.edu.

Alternative Spring Break Trip: El Salvador:

We need your help!

Also, some of the students will need some camping gear again. If you would like to be part of the mission, please see Fr Isaiah or donate at catholic.stanford.edu

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory Care For Me Hervé Kieffel

Extend to me your love that never fails for I find myself among lions who crave for human flesh, their teeth like spears and arrows.

They rigged a net, a trap to bring me down,
but I will not fear, O Lord, to you I'll sing my praise:
awake my soul to song.

I call to the most high, to God, my hope and my salvation:
send help to free me, free me from all fear.

Awake my harp and lyre so I can wake the dawn!
I lift up my voice in praise, for your love reaches heaven's edge, your unfailing love the skies!

Invitation to Prayer

may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.
