a way of life

Sunday, February 7, 2016

What we know and understand as Church more or less begins with today's Gospel reading from St. Luke. Jesus calls His first disciples — His first Apostles. Luke tells us of the miracle that occurred for St. Peter and the others in their fishing boat. At the Lord's command, they cast their nets after a time of catching nothing, and "they caught a great number of fish."

Note Peter's reaction, however. He falls to his knees and implores Jesus, "Depart from me Lord, for I am sinful man." St. Peter is astonished and amazed, and he is, quite frankly, afraid of what he has just experienced. We may sometimes react to the Lord's calling in a similar way. It is a bit overwhelming and frightening to come to the realization that we, too, are called, and that the Lord has expectations of us.

Yet, this is how what we know as the Church began. It commenced with Jesus calling simple fishermen according to our Gospel. These, of course, then developed into twelve, then hundreds, then thousands, and now millions upon millions of those called to be disciples. We are among that throng. When Luke speaks of "following," he is talking about discipleship. We are called to be stewards and disciples, but are we willing to "leave everything and follow Him?"

Permanent Community Prayer Group For Lent: Encountering Christ

Nancy Greenfield will be gathering together those who are interested in a Lenten commitment to pray together once a week as a small group. We hope to spend a little less time talking about Jesus and a little more time talking to Jesus. The group will meet around 9am on six Saturday mornings in Lent from February 13 through March 19 at Nancy Greenfield's house (1140 Bay Laurel Drive, Menlo Park). Please email Nancy at ngreenfield875@gmail.com if you are interested, and she will get back to you with details. ### Persecution & Perseverance: The Church in China

What does the face of the Church in China really look like? In a land where the freedom to express one's faith can't be taken for granted, how have Chinese Christians come together as a faith community and not only persevered but grown amidst a dynamic socio-political landscape that has not been friendly to those who follow Christ? How can their stories inspire us to be bolder witnesses of our faith amidst the increased secularization of our society, particularly within the Bay Area? Come join us for this special Chinese New Year edition of Spirit of Mission.

Meets 2x per quarter. Next meeting: Monday, February 8 at 7 pm, Room 122, First Floor of Old Union, Stanford University. Dinner will be served.

Father Xavier Lavagetto, O.P., Missionary of Mercy:

On Ash Wednesday, the Missionaries of Mercy will be commissioned by Pope Francis during a celebration in St. Peter's Basilica. Our director, Fr. Xavier Lavagetto, O.P. has been chosen as one of 800 such missionaries in the world, and one of the 100 chosen from the United States. Characteristics of the Missionaries are to be:

1. a living sign of the Father's welcome to all those in search of his forgiveness;
2. facilitators for all, with no one excluded, of a truly human encounter, a source of liberation, rich with responsibility for overcoming obstacles and taking up the new life of Baptism again;
3. guided by the words, "For God has consigned all to disobedience, that he may have mercy upon all";
4. inspiring preachers of Mercy;
5. heralds of the joy of forgiveness;
6. welcoming, loving, and compassionate Confessors, who are most especially attentive to the difficult situations of each person.

Holy Week Ministers Needed:

Holy Week falls during Spring Break this year, and many of our regular liturgical ministers will be away. If you are going to be on campus and could help serve the community during Holy Week as a greeter, lector, communion minister, choir member, or altar server, please contact Teresa Pleins, tpleins@stanford.edu. Training will be provided. The liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday are profoundly spiritual and life-giving. Come be a part of these graced moments in the life of the Church.
