building community

a way of life

Sunday, February 8, 2015

“Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.”

There are scores of instances in the Four Gospels which indicate Jesus praying. He often would go off alone to pray, but He also prayed with others publicly; He prayed before He made a choice, before He healed someone, and He was just as likely to pray after as well.

St. Paul exhorts us to “pray constantly, never ceasing.” Jesus perhaps more than any other fulfilled this admonition. He provides to us the perfect example of both how we should pray and in what ways. Prayer is at the foundation of our faith; it is at the core of a stewardship way of life. Developing an ongoing, consistent, and active prayer life is paramount for each of us.

Prayer not only indicates our constant awareness of God, but it enhances our lives, and is an indication of our total trust in God. Trust in God is also an important facet of stewardship. Knowing that we are in God’s hands and in His care is what strengthens us and allows us to make the commitment Jesus has asked us to make. One of Jesus’ final prayers is one which offers us the suggestion of how we need to approach life: “Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.”

ESTEEM:

Engage your Faith as a Leader in the Catholic Church. ESTEEM (Engaging Students to Enliven the Ecclesial Mission) is looking for new members who desire to learn what it takes to be a leader inside and outside of the Catholic Church. By focusing on our Catholic theological traditions and the example of Christ leading his disciples, ESTEEM teaches its members how to be disciples focused on leadership at both Stanford and in the real world. ESTEEM meets Tuesday nights in the Sanctuary on the third-floor of Old Union. Please contact Lourdes Alonso, lalonso@stanford.edu.

Newman Night:

Tuesday, February 24, 2015
 Darwin and God: What Is the Problem?
 Are religion and science irreconcilable enemies? For example, what do we in the Catholic Church teach about Evolution? Our next Newman Night speaker, Professor John Haught will be addressing this issue. A prolific author (Making Sense of Evolution, Deeper Than Darwin: The Prospect for Religion in the Age of Evolution), engaging speaker, and highly respected scholar (Senior Fellow Emeritus, Woodstock Theological Center at Georgetown University), Professor Haught will address some of the thorny issues surrounding the topic of evolution and religion. Join us in the Common Room on the 3rd floor of Old Union at 7:30pm.

Bring Palms To Mass:

Please bring any blessed palms from previous year to Mass the next two Sundays, or drop them by our offices. We will burn them for the ashes on Ash Wednesday. Contact Teresa for more info, tpleins@stanford.edu.

ACTS and Psalm:

An open Bible study with Fr. Daniel, at the Axe and Palm in Old Union, Tuesdays @ 3pm or Wednesdays @ 7pm. Come explore the Acts of the Apostles: The continuation of Luke's Gospel and the story of the early church. See how it applies to our lives today and how it can inspire our lives for tomorrow. (Its like scriptures with a side of fries...yumm) For more info Contact Fr. Daniel at drolland@stanford.edu

Bone Marrow Registry:

Today, Sunday, February 8, the Catholic community will have a bone marrow donor registry drive after each of the Masses. The drive is an opportunity to sign up for the registry, with the future possibility of donating bone marrow or peripheral blood stem cells if you are a match for someone in need. Registration involves filling out a form and swabbing your cheeks.

For more information, visit BeTheMatch.org or email megan3@stanford.edu with any questions.

Reading Group:

The next meeting of the reading group is on Monday March 9th at 7:30 at 870 Tolman Drive to discuss Christian Wiman's memoir "My Bright Abyss: Meditation of a Modern Believer" and his book of poems "Every Riven Thing." Both books are available in paperback and in a Kindle edition.

Liturgical Ministries:

A great New Year's resolution might be to become involved in the liturgical life of our community, serving as an altar server, communion minister, greeter, lector, or choir member. Training is provided. Assignments are generally every 3-4 weeks. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Eucharist For The Homebound:

We are starting a new ministry here at CCAS. If you are unable to make it to us for Mass, any one of several volunteers would be honored to bring you the Eucharist at your home. If you are interested in the service, or if you would like to volunteer to be one of our special Eucharistic Ministers, please email Nancy Greenfield (ngreenfield875@gmail.com)

Engage in Your Faith with Fellow Young Adult Catholics in San Diego:

Gospel Mark 1:29-39

Jesus healed ill people and delivered exorcised possessed people. So many sought him that he had to seek out deserted places for prayer and rest.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
