The Ten Commandments are our moral code given directly to us from God. Our Catholic beliefs, morals, and practices often come under attack from the secular society, but these clearly written morals are the anchor on which much of our behavior should be based.

In fact, according to the noted author and philosopher C. S. Lewis, “There is a universal morality among all humankind. These principles represented in the Ten Commandments are implanted in the hearts and minds of all women and men.” That would seem to make it simple, but as we all know, nothing is ever simple.

Nevertheless, during our Lenten preparations for Easter it is an excellent time for us to evaluate how we are doing in relation to these basic Commandments from God. Our sense of stewardship tells us that we are in need of God’s guidance and instructions. Too often in our society we seem to rely upon what our “personal” feelings may be in relation to morals and how we live them out. When questioned about the Commandments, Jesus responded that the two most important were to “love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind,” as well as “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Our problem may be that we do not even fulfill those two Commandments, let alone the Ten Commandments. That should be our goal always, not just during Lent.

Questions about this or stewardship ministry in general? Please contact M’Lis Berry at meberry@stanford.edu

Lenten Fasting Regulations:

Abstinence:
abstinence from eating meat is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays during Lent. All persons are bound by the law of the Church to abstain from the day after their 14th birthday.

Fasting:
The Church’s law of fast binds on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The law of fasting obliges from the day after one’s 18th birthday until the day after one’s 59th birthday. Fasting means that one full meatless meal per day may be eaten. Two other meatless meals may be taken sufficient to maintain strength, but together they should not equal a full meal. Liquids, including milk and fruit juice, may be taken between meals. If health or ability to work are affected, fasting does not oblige.

Private, self-imposed observance of fasting on all week days of Lent is strongly recommended. Pastors and parents are to see to it that children who are not bound by the laws of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance, conversion and reconciliation.

GENERAL COMMUNITY

Invest in the Alternative Spring Break Team:
A team of 10 students along with Lourdes Alonso will be traveling to Seattle to live in a L’Arche Community during spring break. L’Arche communities are homes where people with and without developmental disabilities share lives together. They were founded 50 years ago by Jean Vanier in France and have 140 communities in 37 countries. Last year one of our students shared this, “L’Arche taught me that I really want two things: I want to love others, and I want to be loved by others.” The ASB team would like to invite you to be part of this profound journey. Stop by the table after Mass to learn how you can invest in this wonderful opportunity to change the lives of our students.

Apostle’s Creed
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Verses:
The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose.
Beside restful waters he leads me, he refreshes my soul.

He guides me in the right paths, for his name sake,
even though I walk through the dark valley,
I feel no evil with you by my side,
your rod and your staff give me courage.

You spread the table before me, in the sight of all my foes.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever,
in the house of the Lord, forever.
