building community

a way of life

Sunday, March 22, 2015

“Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies it produces much fruit.” (Jn 12:24-25) We understand the meaning of this statement in that the grain of wheat must be buried and in a sense die if it is to be reborn and to grow and produce wheat.

That is similar to what we should have been trying to accomplish during this holy Lenten season. The term “born again” is a popular phrase in many churches, but this rebirth is also what we strive for in our Catholic Church. We are reborn in multiple ways – through Baptism, through our ongoing conversion, and through our daily efforts to be good stewards.

Lent is, of course, the ideal time for us to seek this rebirth. Our efforts through the past several weeks should have been to bury our old self and to be reborn with a deeper sense of faith and trust in God. Easter is but two weeks away and Lent officially ends on Holy Thursday. However, it is not too late to rededicate ourselves to God-centered lives. St. John Eudes put it this way, “Let us therefore give ourselves to God with great desire to begin to live thus, and beg Him to destroy in us the life of the world of sin, and to establish His life within us.”

Lenten Fasting Regulations:

Abstinence:

abstinence from eating meat is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays during Lent. All persons are bound by the law of the Church to abstain from the day after their 14th. birthday.

Fasting:

The Church’s law of fast binds on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The law of fasting obliges from the day after one’s 18th. birthday until the day after one’s 59th birthday. Fasting means that one full meatless meal per day may be eaten. Two other meatless meals may be taken sufficient to maintain strength, but together they should not equal a full meal. Liquids, including milk and fruit juice, may be taken between meals. If health or ability to work are affected, fasting does not oblige.

Private, self-imposed observance of fasting on all week days of Lent is strongly recommended. Pastors and parents are to see to it that children who are not bound by the laws of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance, conversion and reconciliation.

Good Friday Stations of the Cross, April 3, 3pm:

Join us on Good Friday as we hike the Stanford Dish and prayerfully reflect on the way of the cross. The loop at the Dish is a moderate hike which is just over 3 miles. We will offer two options for the meditation. The longer hike will encompass the entire loop of the Dish, taking about 2 hours. The shorter will do half of the stations one way and come back the same way to complete the stations lasting about 1 hour. Please wear good walking shoes and bring a bottle of water. Meet us at the Stanford Ave entrance.

Invest in the Alternative Spring Break Team:

A team of 10 students along with Lourdes Alonso will be traveling to Seattle to live in a L'Arche Community during spring break. L'Arche communities are homes where people with and without developmental disabilities share lives together. They were founded 50 years ago by Jean Vanier in France and have 140 communities in 37 countries. Last year one of our students shared this, "L'Arche taught me that I really want two things: I want to love others, and I want to be loved by others." The ASB team would like to invite you to be part of this profound journey. Stop by the table after Mass to learn how you can invest in this wonderful opportunity to change the lives of our students.

PodCasts:

Did you know that the Sunday homilies as well as Newman Nights, the recent Faith that does Justice Symposium and other CC@S events are all podcast at <http://feeds.feedburner.com/CatholicCardinalReflections?> For more information, see <http://catholic.stanford.edu/media/podcast> or the CC@S app.

Gospel

John 12:20-33

Jesus told his followers: "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself."

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Sálvame, Señor (translation)

The boat shook precariously
Because the wind was against them;
And the Lord came to them
Walking upon the sea.

“Teacher, if it is you,
Beckon me come to you.
Save me, save me, Lord!
Save me, save me, Lord!”

His frightened disciples said: “It’s a ghost”,
And the Lord reassured them: “Fear not, it is I”.

Before each miracle, the Lord sought solitude,
So as to be one with the Father in prayer.

Today, through this banquet you also call me.
I declare that you are the true son of God.

In your sacrament you give us
The grace of true salvation.
Our souls grow strong,
Our faith shall never die.
