building community

a way of life

Sunday, April 12, 2015

“The community of believers was of one heart and one mind.” For those who practice stewardship as a way of life every passage from Holy Scripture contains a stewardship message. However, today’s readings are particularly special in that regard. The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles speaks to the sense of unity and teamwork of the early Church. Our own parishes may reflect this idea that we are one, and that we have a common purpose.

One of the great misconceptions of this particular scriptural passage is that it reflects what we might term a “sense of Communism.” However, as we as Catholics and stewards reflect upon this, we must understand a basic difference. Communism says “What you think is yours is really mine.” Our faith, our community, and our good stewards say, “What may seem to be mine is really yours.”

“No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own.” This is the stewardship understanding that, first and foremost, everything comes from, is gifted by, and is possessed by God, not by us. In addition, stewards understand that all their gifts are to be shared with others. The key to this entire passage is, nonetheless, that the early Christians regarded people as more important than things. As difficult as this may be for us, that is to what we are called, as well.

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 4:32-35

The community of believers shared "one heart and mind." No one claimed ownership over anything; everything was held in common. No body went needy among them and all bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

Second Reading

1 John 5:1-6

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God. Jesus Christ came through water and blood. The Spirit bears witness to this, and the Spirit is truth.

Gospel Acclamation

Easter Alleluia

Gospel

John 20:19-31

Jesus appeared to the disciples wishing them "peace" and breathing the Holy Spirit on them. Thomas doubted and then believed, saying, "My Lord and my God!"

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
