building community

a new way of life

God proclaims at the end of our Second Reading from the Book of Revelations, "Behold, I make all things new." That is a good thing to remember on this Fifth Sunday of Easter. In the opening verse of this reading from Holy Scripture, John also says, "I...saw a new heaven and a new earth." Easter reveals this newness to us, and we must always keep it in mind.

The Greek word used for what is translated as "new" is kainē. As is normally the case, that particular Greek word has multiple meanings, one of which is "fresh." We are not speaking of a heaven and earth which did not exist before, but of a heaven and earth which are fresh in their newness. This is not just a "new" perspective, but a better one.

If we strive to live out our lives as disciples of Christ, if we make a complete effort to be His disciples, we inherit this new heaven. In it, as also indicated in our Second Reading, God expresses His desire to be in close fellowship with us, and we in turn must desire to be His people. Being God's disciple should be the whole purpose of our lives. That is not easily achieved, nor is it without obstacles and hurdles for us, but it is what our purpose should be.

The Reading Group:

Our next meeting is on THURSDAY JUNE 2nd at 7:30 at the Gelpis' home on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We'll discuss "AMORIS LAETITIA: THE JOY OF LOVE," Pope Francis's recent document on the family. This is an important and perhaps groundbreaking statement by Papa Francesco, and it should give us a lot to reflect on and discuss. It is readily available in both paperback and e-book format, and the text is probably also available on the Vatican website or the website of the conference of U.S. bishops. Please note the change of day for this meeting, from our usual Monday to Thursday. All are welcome to join the conversation.

Sanctus Mass From Age To Age Chris De Silva

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God of hosts. Heav - en and earth are full of your no room for the rest

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

- The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose.
Beside restful waters he leads me, he refreshes my soul.
- He guides me in right paths for his name's sake, even though I walk through the dark valley, I fear no evil, with you by my side, your rod and your staff give me courage.
- You spread the table before me, in the sight of all my foes.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
- Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell
in the house of the Lord forever,
in the house of the Lord, forever.
