building community

a way of life

Sunday, April 26, 2015

Traditionally, the Fourth Sunday of Easter (today) is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. Christ tells us in today's Gospel from John, "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me." The image of Christ as the shepherd is one of the oldest in the Church. Even in the Catacombs there is an ancient drawing of Christ carrying a sheep on his shoulders.

Sometimes it is difficult for us to view ourselves as sheep. There is something passive and reliant in that image which may bother our sense of independence. However, if we are honest with ourselves, we know that we need the Lord's help and guidance. An essential part of living a stewardship way of life is placing our lives in the hands of our Good Shepherd nonetheless.

Throughout this Easter Season we celebrate that one mystery — that Christ gave His life for us on the Cross. If we accept the fact that He is our Savior and that He is our Shepherd, we are better able to serve as shepherds to one another. Stewardship is a life of giving self, a life of self-giving. We must constantly work to live up to the Lord's expectations of us, but we also must always know that He is our shepherd, our Good Shepherd, and He is always there for us.

new announcements

Dear Catholic Community at Stanford.

As you have heard me say before, the Catholic Community at Stanford is a wonderful, faith filled community. It is a great honor to be part of a community so diverse in its gifts and so intentional in its discipleship. I share with you that I am being reassigned to be the Director of the Newman Center at University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

But before we separate and say goodbye it is important to appreciate the time we have together. My new assignment begins July 1 so I will be here to the end of June in which my last Mass will be the 4:30 p.m. on June 28. Please pray for me during this time of transition, for it is never easy to become part of peoples lives and then to move. Please pray for my success there for I am challenged to raise a million dollars to build a church with stained glass and all. Of course it will not be as grand as the Memorial Church. Yet I have hopes.

So who is coming? and What is he like? These may be some of the questions arising as you read this. His name is Fr. Emanuel Taylor. He is currently an associate at St. Dominic's in San Francisco. I mention this as I know many will begin to Google him and Facebook him and do the Cyber Searches to know who he is. I will say that I know him as a sincere and caring priest and I am glad for you to receive him well. Pray for him in this time of transition as well and know that you are in my prayers. I end this message with a heart felt Thank You. You have been very good for me, God Bless you always.

Fr. Daniel Rolland, O.P.

Help Save a Life by Giving Blood:

The Catholic Community at Stanford and Atheists, Humanists, and Agnostics (AHA!) at Stanford are hosting a blood drive through the Stanford Blood Center on Sunday, May 3, 2015 from 11:00am-4:00pm. The Stanford Bloodmobile will be parked on Santa Teresa behind Tresidder Union. The entire process of blood donation takes approximately one hour. Your donation can provide hope and help save the life of a patient in a local hospital. Participate in giving the gift of life! To schedule an appointment or for more information, please stop by the blood drive table after Mass, visit bloodcenter.stanford.edu, or contact Megan McAndrews at megan3@stanford.edu.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER APRIL 26, 2015

Professor Ursula King Lecture:

All are invited to join us on April 30 in Memorial Church at 7:30pm for a very special lecture by Dr. Ursula King of the University of Bristol, England to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Teilhard de Chardin, the great Jesuit paleontologist and theologian. The lecture is titled: "The Universe as Epiphany: Teilhard de Chardin's discovery of the heart of God in all Creation". Dr. King will present an examination of his mysticism based on science and the spiritual richness of evolution and modern cosmology.

Second Collection:

This Sunday, we will be apportioning a percentage of our collection for the Home Missions. Please be generous.

Want to Help A Student Athlete?

We have received a request from a Catholic Student Athlete from Univ. of Dubuque (Class of 2016). He has accepted an internship with Stanford Sports Performance staff. He is looking for housing from June-December. Have space to share? Contact Fr. Xavier (xavierop@stanford.edu) for more info (resume and references). Nothing like giving a helping hand!

Reading Group:

The next meeting of the reading group will be Monday May 11th at 7:30 at Albert and Barbara Gelpi's house on campus: 870 Tolman Drive. We'll be discussing Mary Gordon's "The Liar's Wife: Four Novellas," which is available as an e-book as well as in libraries. All are welcome to join the conversation.

Next Spanish Mass
Sunday - May 17 - 3pm

Dominican Life in the 21st Century:

Solemn High Mass According to the Dominican Rite and Reflections on Dominican Life Today.

In honor of the Year for Consecrated Life, the Dominican nuns of Corpus Christi Monastery, the friars of the Western Dominican Province, and the Corpus Christi chapter of Dominican Laity joyfully invite you to Dominican Life in the 21st Century, at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, 2015, at Corpus Christi Monastery, 215 Oak Grove Avenue, Menlo Park, California.

The morning will begin with a Solemn High Mass according to the Dominican Rite; the celebrant will be Fr. Ambrose Sigman, O.P. Following Mass, the Dominican friars, nuns, and laity will present three short talks on Dominican life. A light reception will follow.

Founded by St. Dominic 800 years ago, the Order of Friars Preachers was commissioned to contemplate God and share with others the fruit of that contemplation, preaching the Gospel for the salvation of souls. Today, the sons and daughters of St. Dominic continue to embrace and live out that charism as religious friars and nuns, sisters and laity.

For more information, please contact Sr. Joseph Marie, O.P. at DominicanNuns@nunsmenlo.org or (650) 322-1801

Gospel

John 10:11-18

Jesus is the good shepherd who knows the sheep. The good shepherd not only loves and protects the sheep, but also sacrifices life and limb for them.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
