building community

a way of life

Sunday, May 3, 2015

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus reminds us how important each and every one of us is when He says, "I am the vine; you are the branches." One of the central ideas in the spirituality of stewardship is how crucial each person is to the success and effectiveness of the community. Of course, together we can do so much more than each of us can individually.

Are you using your gifts? Are you using your gifts to build the community and to serve others? Jesus speaks of His Father "pruning" the branches that do not bear fruit. As is often the case in ancient Greek, a word can have two meanings. The word for "prune" is also the word for "cleanse." That is the point the Lord is most likely making. Until we are "cleansed," until we have sought conversion and change with the help of God, we are not able to fully fulfill our covenants with God.

Stewardship, of course, is a call to each of us to respond to our many gifts with thanksgiving and service. Fruits bear seeds within them. Our response to God's call is to allow our seeds to produce more fruit. The author Robert Louis Stevenson said, "Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap, but by the seeds you plant." As our Easter season continues, we need to make sure we are attached to the vine of the Lord, and that we are planting seeds.

prayer requests

The Islamic group (ISIS) just took over Quaragosh, the biggest Christian city in Iraq. There are hundreds of men, women and children that are being beheaded.

The people are asking for prayers to be made on their behalf concerning the ongoing atrocity in their country. Please take one minute to pray for them.

They asked for this special prayer. Please, ensure you pass across the prayer request to the body of Christ for fervent prayers offered on behalf of the brothers, sisters and children in Iraq. This is an urgent SOS.

May God bless you.

From Andrew White the Vicar of Baghdad.

new announcements

Dear Catholic Community at Stanford.

As you have heard me say before, the Catholic Community at Stanford is a wonderful, faith filled community. It is a great honor to be part of a community so diverse in its gifts and so intentional in its discipleship. I share with you that I am being reassigned to be the Director of the Newman Center at University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

But before we separate and say goodbye it is important to appreciate the time we have together. My new assignment begins July 1 so I will be here to the end of June in which my last Mass will be the 4:30 p.m. on June 28. Please pray for me during this time of transition, for it is never easy to become part of peoples lives and then to move. Please pray for my success there for I am challenged to raise a million dollars to build a church with stained glass and all. Of course it will not be as grand as the Memorial Church. Yet I have hopes.

So who is coming? and What is he like? These may be some of the questions arising as you read this. His name is Fr. Emanuel Taylor. He is currently an associate at St. Dominic's in San Francisco. I mention this as I know many will begin to Google him and Facebook him and do the Cyber Searches to know who he is. I will say that I know him as a sincere and caring priest and I am glad for you to receive him well. Pray for him in this time of transition as well and know that you are in my prayers. I end this message with a heart felt Thank You. You have been very good for me, God Bless you always.

Fr. Daniel Rolland, O.P.

Help Save a Life by Giving Blood: TODAY!!!

The Catholic Community at Stanford and Atheists, Humanists, and Agnostics (AHA!) at Stanford are hosting a blood drive through the Stanford Blood Center on Sunday, May 3, 2015 from 11:00am-4:00pm. The Stanford Bloodmobile will be parked on Santa Teresa behind Tresidder Union. The entire process of blood donation takes approximately one hour. Your donation can provide hope and help save the life of a patient in a local hospital. Participate in giving the gift of life! To schedule an appointment or for more information, please stop by the blood drive table after Mass, visit bloodcenter.stanford.edu, or contact Megan McAndrews at megan3@stanford.edu.

Reading Group:

The next meeting of the reading group will be Monday May 11th at 7:30 at Albert and Barbara Gelpi's house on campus: 870 Tolman Drive. We'll be discussing Mary Gordon's "The Liar's Wife: Four Novellas," which is available as an e-book as well as in libraries. All are welcome to join the conversation.

Want to Help A Student Athlete?

We have received a request from a Catholic Student Athlete from Univ. of Dubuque (Class of 2016). He has accepted an internship with Stanford Sports Performance staff. He is looking for housing from June-December. Have space to share? Contact Fr. Xavier (xavierop@stanford.edu) for more info (resume and references). Nothing like giving a helping hand!

PodCasts:

Did you know that the Sunday homilies as well as Newman Nights, the recent Faith that does Justice Symposium and other CC@S events are all podcast at <http://feeds.feedburner.com/CatholicCardinalReflections>? For more information, see <http://catholic.stanford.edu/media/podcast> or the CC@S app.

Dominican Life in the 21st Century:

Solemn High Mass According to the Dominican Rite and Reflections on Dominican Life Today.

In honor of the Year for Consecrated Life, the Dominican nuns of Corpus Christi Monastery, the friars of the Western Dominican Province, and the Corpus Christi chapter of Dominican Laity joyfully invite you to Dominican Life in the 21st Century, at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, 2015, at Corpus Christi Monastery, 215 Oak Grove Avenue, Menlo Park, California.

The morning will begin with a Solemn High Mass according to the Dominican Rite; the celebrant will be Fr. Ambrose Sigman, O.P. Following Mass, the Dominican friars, nuns, and laity will present three short talks on Dominican life. A light reception will follow.

Founded by St. Dominic 800 years ago, the Order of Friars Preachers was commissioned to contemplate God and share with others the fruit of that contemplation, preaching the Gospel for the salvation of souls. Today, the sons and daughters of St. Dominic continue to embrace and live out that charism as religious friars and nuns, sisters and laity.

For more information, please contact Sr. Joseph Marie, O.P. at DominicanNuns@nunsmenlo.org or (650) 322-1801

Gospel

John 15:1-8

Jesus said, "I am the vine and you are the branches. Those who live in me and I in them will bear fruit abundantly."

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Engage Your Heart Through Service To Others:

Companions in Ignatian Service and Spirituality (www.ignatiancompanions.org) is a unique program that engages women and men, retired and semi-retired, who have a desire to serve those most marginalized in our communities while deepening their spiritual foundations. Ignatian Companions integrate their personal journey of faith with their own conviction to act for justice within local nonprofits.

We are currently accepting applications for the 2015-2016 program year and will be welcoming new participants until our program is filled to its capacity. Applications are available on our website. If you have an interest, we invite you to attend Come and See Session or contact us at ignatiancompanions@gmail.com or 415-375-0622. Volunteer Opportunities

St. Anthony Padua's Dining Room:

The CCAS is committed to serving the needy at St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park. If you would like to volunteer on Saturday, May 23 from 8:30 - 1pm or a subset thereof, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu (650 302 6902) to discuss and/or have a volunteer position reserved for you. We serve every first and fourth Saturday of the month, so plan ahead and let Gary know at least by the preceding Wednesday. After His resurrection, Jesus opened the minds of his disciples. Your love given to others at St. A's also manifests God in the world.
