building community

a new way of life

On this Seventh Sunday of Easter, most Catholics in the United States also celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. Traditionally, Ascension Thursday occurred 40 days after Easter (May 5 this year); however, most dioceses in the U.S. have transferred this Holy Day of Obligation to the Sunday following it, which this year is today.

Christ's Ascension is important to us. It is one of our core beliefs, to the extent that when we profess our faith at Mass, regardless which Creed we use, we declare, "He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father." To deny Christ's Ascension is to deny His Resurrection. Before His Ascension, which is described in our First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Jesus tells His followers, "...you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

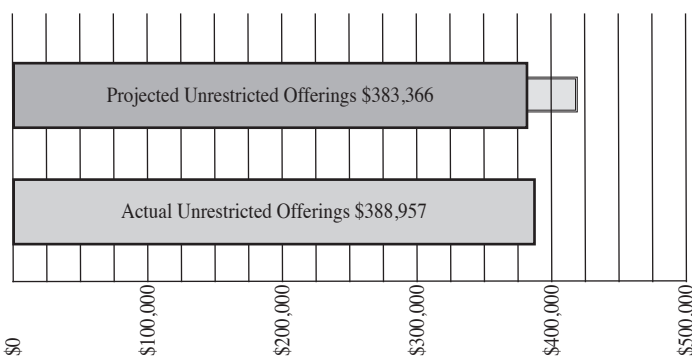

We, too, have been baptized and imbued with the Holy Spirit. This Third Member of the Holy Trinity is the aspect of God that lives and empowers each of us. We may think that the Holy Spirit has more work to do among those who do not believe, but there is also considerable work to be done among those of us who do believe. We are called to serve; we are called to discipleship; we are called to lives of stewardship; we are reminded of that in all of today's readings.

In his homily on the Ascension of Christ last year, Pope Francis said, "The Ascension tells us He is with God the Father, where He always intercedes in our favor."

The Reading Group:

Our next meeting is on THURSDAY JUNE 2nd at 7:30 at the Gelpis' home on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We'll discuss "AMORIS LAETITIA: THE JOY OF LOVE," Pope Francis's recent document on the family. This is an important and perhaps groundbreaking statement by Papa Francesco, and it should give us a lot to reflect on and discuss. It is readily available in both paperback and e-book format, and the text is probably also available on the Vatican website or the website of the conference of U.S. bishops. Please note the change of day for this meeting, from our usual Monday to Thursday. All are welcome to join the conversation.

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

Newman Night

Tuesday, May 17th, 2016 at 7:30pm

In the Common Room of Old Union
#BlackLivesMatter: A Catholic Social Teaching Approach.

How does the Catholic faith address the pernicious effects of racism still prevalent in our society? Where does Catholicism intersect with activism, solidarity, and liberation with and for the oppressed in America and beyond? What can we do, inspired by religion, to critically examine our consciences and culture, learn about our privilege, and combat social issues that affect all of us? Come hear from distinguished religious and lay panelists, moderated by the first Black Catholic priest ordained in Northern California, Fr. Jay Matthews, Rector of Cathedral of Christ the Light in Oakland, as they share their expertise and lived experiences on the issue of Racial Justice and the Catholic Church.
