a new way of life

Today is the Solemnity of Pentecost. One of the most ancient feasts of the Church, Pentecost is mentioned and explained in both the Acts of the Apostles (today's First Reading) and in St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. The name comes quite simply from the Greek word, Pentekoste, which meant "the 50th day" as Pentecost is 50 days after Easter Sunday (counting Easter).

Pentecost is often called the "birthday of the Church" as it was on this day — with the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and about 120 followers of Christ, including our Blessed Mother Mary and other men and women — that Christ's mission on earth is completed.

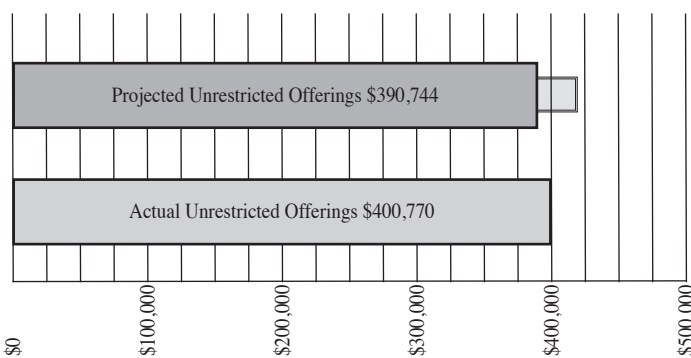

However, that mission continues with us. We, too, have received the power of the Holy Spirit through Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, and other sacraments. It is this Holy Spirit that allows us to be the Lord's Disciples actively working in today's Church and today's society. Nevertheless, we must accept and recognize that fact.

In a homily given on Pentecost Sunday 20 years ago Pope St. John Paul II said, "In the Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke describes the extraordinary manifestation of the Holy Spirit. This divine gift is light and power, light to proclaim the Gospel truth and power to infuse each of us with the courage of witnessing to the faith." Living out this call is the essence of stewardship.

we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

The Reading Group:

Our next meeting is on THURSDAY JUNE 2nd at 7:30 at the Gelpis' home on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We'll discuss "AMORIS LAETITIA: THE JOY OF LOVE," Pope Francis's recent document on the family. This is an important and perhaps groundbreaking statement by Papa Francesco, and it should give us a lot to reflect on and discuss. It is readily available in both paperback and e-book format, and the text is probably also available on the Vatican website or the website of the conference of U.S. bishops. Please note the change of day for this meeting, from our usual Monday to Thursday. All are welcome to join the conversation.

Grads

Grad Bible Study:

Every Sunday at 6:30pm. We will be reading Acts of the Apostles this quarter. Contact Chiara (cgiam@stanford.edu) for more information.

Catholicism 101:

There's a sweet, sweet spirit in this place,

We list our hearts with praise;

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

#BlackLivesMatter: A Catholic Social Teaching Approach.

How does the Catholic faith address the pernicious effects of racism still prevalent in our society? Where does Catholicism intersect with activism, solidarity, and liberation with and for the oppressed in America and beyond? What can we do, inspired by religion, to critically examine our consciences and culture, learn about our privilege, and combat social issues that affect all of us? Come hear from distinguished religious and lay panelists, moderated by the first Black Catholic priest ordained in Northern California, Fr. Jay Matthews, Rector of Cathedral of Christ the Light in Oakland, as they share their expertise and lived experiences on the issue of Racial Justice and the Catholic Church.
