Stewardship: It's Not About You

Fifth Sunday of Easter
MAY 18, 2014

“Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these” (Jn 14:12). These words from today’s Gospel were Jesus’ call to action to his apostles before he left them for the last time. They remain his call to action to all of us as his disciples today. It’s a daunting call.

Jorge Mario Bergoglio’s choice of the papal name Francis was the first sign that he wanted to make a radical change in our focus. St. Francis was known for his care of the poor as well as his simple living and shunning of possessions. This lifestyle and focus were in stark contrast to the hypocrisies, opulence and elitism of the Catholic Church of St. Francis’ time. Similarly, we see Pope Francis also shunning hypocrisy, opulence and elitism in our modern Church and in the world at large. St. Francis made an impact because he actually patterned his life after the life and teachings of Jesus. Pope Francis also consistently reminds us that our work, the work of our Church, is to pattern ourselves after Jesus. Yet, we still continue to struggle with that call to action. We still struggle as Christians to act like Christ because our individualism (promotion of our own self-interests) often trumps our philanthropy (our love of humankind).

Christian Stewardship’s premise is an acknowledgment that all that we have is not ours, but is God’s. Christian Stewardship denies the legitimacy of individualism. As managers of God’s gifts, we are in charge of using these gifts in furtherance of God’s will. We know what God’s will is because he sent his son down to show us. Jesus said “follow me”, not “worship me”. Fr. Richard Rohr says that we sometimes cleverly seek to avoid the hard work of actually imitating Jesus by focusing on the worship of him.

As we prepare ourselves for the week ahead, let’s take up the challenge anew. Let’s use our God-given strengths and gifts to reach out to the less fortunate, the disenfranchised, and the marginalized. Let’s answer Jesus’ call to “do the works I do...and do greater ones than these.”

In Silicon Valley, we are surrounded by opulence and elitism. It is easy to fall prey to individualism. At Catholic Community at Stanford, our members are some of the most talented, most intelligent and most entrepreneurial individuals in the world. In our midst, we have today and tomorrow’s leaders. How can we harness those gifts and talents for the greater good of our community, our disciplines and our world? How will we as Catholic leaders “do greater ones than these”?

Stewardship
a way of life

The Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University.

We appreciate the support of our community members and visitors to grow and sustain our mission.

If you would like to support our ministry, please visit us at <http://catholic.stanford.edu/giving>.

Or you can download the easy and free Paystik mobile app.

Whether you would like to give once or set up a recurring gift, Paystik is a simple mobile app that lets smartphone users contribute and manage donations in 15 seconds.

It's really that easy. Paystik is available for both iOS and Android devices.

Baptisms Today:

Welcome to the newest members of our community:

Conor Banks
 Eva Caldera
 Steven Caldera III
 Margaret Carter
 Mckenzie Chan
 Emmanuel FitzMedrud
 Luke Furtado
 William Hart IV
 Diego Jaramillo
 Jamie Noonan
 Natalie Pearce

Please keep these children and their parents in your prayers as they begin their new life in Christ.

Save The Date:

Please join us for a farewell reception in honor of Father Nathan Castle. On Sunday, May 25, 2014 After the 4:30 Mass, outside Memorial Church.

Grad Masses:

Mark your calendars and invitations with our Grad Masses. These are special liturgies held to celebrate our graduates and their families on SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1:00 in Spanish, 5:30 in English. Both Masses held in Memorial Church.

Catholic Leadership Team:

Applications are now available for positions on the undergraduate Catholic Leadership Team. CLT members represent the hands and feet of Christ by planning spiritual, educational, service and social events to help students build community and grow in their faith. If you would like to get involved by developing your leadership skills and sharing your gifts with the Stanford community, please consider applying. Download the application from our website or contact Lourdes for more information.

Delicious Peace:

All are welcome to join us next week for coffee, desserts and a presentation on an interfaith coffee cooperative in Uganda. The Catholic Community is part of several groups co-sponsoring the event with the Office for Religious Life.

Tuesday, May 20, 2014, 7:00 pm, Building 370, Room 370

All are welcome. Coffee and desserts will be served after the presentation.

Save Your Blood!

The Catholic Community at Stanford is hosting a blood drive in collaboration with the Atheists, Humanists, and Agnostics group through the Stanford Blood Center. Date: Sunday, June 1st, Time: 11:00am-4 pm, Location: Bloodmobile parked on Santa Theresa St. behind Tresidder Union.

The entire process of blood donation takes approximately one hour. Your donation can provide hope and help save the life of a patient in a local hospital. Participate in giving the gift of life! To schedule an appointment or for more information please visit the CC@S website or contact Sabrina Tabone at sdtabone@stanford.edu. Please visit bloodcenter.stanford.edu for detailed donation information. If you have traveled outside of the country, please call 888-723-7831 to check your eligibility before scheduling an appointment.

Farewell To Father Nathan:

We will be holding a reception right after the 4:30 Mass on May 25 to thank Father Nathan for his work with us over the past seven years. Please join us to wish him well in his new venture as itinerant preacher and retreat leader. Father Nathan prefers that all gifts be directed to the Western Dominican Province's Mission West Campaign for the welfare of our elder priests, for the training of new priests, and for ongoing support of the Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology. Checks can be made out to Western Dominican Province, and their will be a basket at the reception for gifts. We hope to see you on May 25!

Religion and Science in Dialogue: Free Will and Biology

Do we have free will? If so, we can choose to join in a divine invitation to create the Kingdom of God (from a Christian perspective). If not, sin is not real and neither is love. Abrahamic theology has always placed a significant emphasis on free will, but recently neurobiologists claim that free will does not exist at all. To them, our brains mechanistically "decide" and create the illusion that we have freely chosen our acts. On May 19, Professor Celia Deane Drummond of the University of Notre Dame will be the guest lecturer for our course on Religion and Science in Dialogue. Guests are welcome to audit the lecture with the permission of the instructor, Professor Paul Crowley, S.J. (pcrowley@scu.edu)

Corpus Christi Monastery Help:

On Saturday, May 31, CC@S will be helping the nuns of the Corpus Christi Monastery in Menlo Park clean up their gardens and grounds, where they spend much of their day in adoration of our Lord. We will be working on a wide range of gardening and ground improvement projects, all of which require some degree of physical labor, so make sure your body is up to the task. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Peter at pamaraccini@gmail.com to discuss the work and have a volunteer position reserved for you.

Also, we are looking to borrow gardening equipment for this project. Some items needed are rakes, shovels, shears, trowels, gardening/work gloves, and any other equipment that you think could help the cause. If you are willing to loan us equipment, please label everything and drop it off a few days before the event. We will make sure it gets back to you soon after the event. Contact Lourdes at lalonso@stanford.edu.

Food Drive for Neighbors Helping Neighbors:

Week of May 25. Help us collect food for a local Palo Alto organization that helps neighbors during times of personal emergency, especially those who do not qualify for other services. You can help by purchasing a few extra non-perishable items the next time you are at the grocery store. Any food will be appreciated but due to food allergies, some examples of the most needed items are: whole grains like quinoa, basmati rice, bulgar & wheat berry, non gluten foods, almond butter, canned salmon, roasted nuts (lightly salted or no salt) like almonds, pecans, cashews, walnuts & pistachios as well as beans and lentils. Please bring food items in a bag to any Mass on Sunday, May 25 or leave outside the Catholic Community office, room 305 of Old Union Monday-Thursday, May 26-29. Contact Lourdes at lalonso@stanford.edu if you have any questions.

Please Return Your Rice Bowls:

During Lent, our parish community has prayed, fasted and given alms with a special focus on the poorest members of our global community.

dark-ness thy face to see, Lead me, oh Lord, lead me.
all my trust in thee. Lead me, oh Lord, lead me.
let me thy ser - vant be. Lead me, oh Lord, lead me.

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 6:1-7

There were complaints that certain widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. Seven deacons were appointed to oversee an equitable distribution of food.

Psalm 33 Let Your Mercy Be On Us Marty Haugen

Let your mer - cy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

Verses

- Your words, O God, are truth indeed, and all your works are ever faithful; you love justice and right, your compassion fills all creation.
- See how the eye of God is watching, ever guarding all who wait in hope, to deliver them from death and sustain them in time of famine.
- Exult, you just, in the Lord, for praise is the song of the righteous! How happy the people of God, the ones whom God has chosen!
- Our soul is waiting for God, for God is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O God, be upon us who place our hope in you.

Second Reading 1 Peter 2:4-9

Christ is the cornerstone, precious to God. All who believe are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, called to proclaim the gospel.

Gospel Acclamation Easter Alleluia

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Gospel John 14:1-12

Jesus told the disciples that he would prepare a place for them in heaven. He explained that in order to know the Father, one must first know the Son.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory Now the Green Blade Rises M. Haugen

1. Now the green blade ris - es from the bur - ied grain,
2. In the grave they laid him, love by ha - tred slain,
3. Forth he came at East - er, like the ris - en grain,
4. When our hearts are win - try, griev - ing, or in pain,

Wheat that in dark earth man - y days has lain;
Think - ing that he would nev - er wake a - gain;
He that for three days in the grave had lain;
Your touch can call us back to life a - gain,

Love lives a - gain, that with the dead has been;
Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps un - seen;
Raised from the dead, my liv - ing Lord is seen;
Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been;

Love is come a - gain like wheat a - ris - ing green.

Sanctus Mass From Age to Age de Silva

Communion Taste and See J. Moore

Taste and See, Taste and See the good - ness of the Lord. O, Taste and See, Taste and See the good - ness of the Lord, of the Lord.

Communion Down To the River arr. S. Curry

1. As I went down to the river to pray,
 Studyin' about that good 'ol way
 And who should wear the starry crown.
 Good Lord, show me the way.

2. O sisters, let's go down, let's go down,
 Come on down.
 O sisters, let's go down,
 Down to the river to pray.

As I went down to the river to pray,
 Studyin' about that good ol' way
 And who should wear the robe and crown.
 Good Lord, show me the way.

3. O brothers, let's go down, let's go down,
 Come on down.
 Come on brothers, let's go down,
 Down to the river to pray.

As I went down to the river to pray,
 Studyin' about that good ol' way
 And who shall wear the starry crown.
 Good Lord, show me the way.

4. O fathers, let's go down, let's go down,
 Come on down.
 O fathers, let's go down,
 Down to the river to pray.

Lay Missionary Summer Formation Program:

Looking to deepen your understanding of the Catholic faith with a special emphasis on foreign missions?

The St. Francis Xavier Lay Missionary Society is offering an intensive 9-week lay missionary training and formation program that aims to provide a solid foundation and understanding of our faith, missionary work, living in a foreign environment, important life skills, and region-specific issues, while continuing the discernment process for those interested in serving as Catholic lay missionaries in a foreign culture. The regional focus will be Asia. Courses will be taught by both lay and religious at an academic level equivalent to the intellectual rigor and workload of a graduate studies program.

The program features approximately 250 hours of class time, plus Mass, prayer, praise & worship, fellowship, and community service activities. The formation program runs June 23 - August 23, 2014 at St. Albert's Priory near Berkeley, CA.

To find more info about the formation program, visit www.laymissionary.org/formation-program. Applications for the formation program are due by May 30th.
