The mission of the Catholic Community at Stanford (CC@S) is to develop and form well educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders in order to bring positive change to their disciplines, communities, Church, and world.
Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. That means we are celebrating God on this holy day. In the Catholic Church a solemnity is the highest ranking holy day possible (followed by a feast and a memorial). The Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of our Catholic faith.

As Catholics we acknowledge the Holy Trinity when we arrive in a church, and several times during our liturgies as well as other times. Every time we make the sign of the cross, every time we pray most likely, we are expressing our faith in the Trinity and our faith that the Trinity was revealed by Jesus on the Cross. One part of stewardship is knowing our traditions and the meanings behind them.

Making the sign of the Cross should never be an empty gesture on our parts. Jesus told us that if we love Him, God (the Trinity) will come and dwell within us. More than once St. Paul reminds us that we are “temples of the living God.” God is within each and every one of us. Do we realize that? Do we live out that truth? Today’s feast confronts us to examine ourselves and our lives. As good stewards we need to live with the certainty that the Blessed Trinity is present in us. Then we need to reflect that presence.

Pope Francis, in his homily on the Feast of the Holy Trinity in 2013, said, “In today’s feast we praise God for His glory is immense. We praise Him and thank Him for He is love, and He calls us to embrace Him and those around us with that love.”

Graduation Masses:
Mark your calendar for our upcoming Grad Masses in Memorial Church on SATURDAY, June 11. Mass in Spanish at 1:00. Mass in English at 5:30. Grads, families, and the entire community are invited to these special liturgies. Due to the University Commencement, there are NO MASSES on Sunday, June 12.

Women’s Summer Faith Sharing:
Calling young women ages 25-40 to participate! All are welcome: Single/Married/Divorced/Kids/NoKids/WorkingProfessionals/GradStudents. If you are going to be around this June and early July, this group could be for you! We will be meeting for 6 consecutive Saturday Mornings (June: 4, 11, 18, 25 & July 2, 9) from 9:30am-11:30am. Our small group will be focused on deepening our understanding of Sunday Scripture and sharing faith/life connections in a supportive & confidential environment. Contact Rosemary Pesko: rothrer@gmail.com, 505-660-9396 to learn more and/or sign-up.

Are You New? Welcome to CC@S!
Thank you for stopping by! Whether you’re just visiting us or are looking for a new parish home, are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church or are returning to the practice of your Catholic faith, we’re happy you’re here!

CC@S:
We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

Interested in Exploring the Catholic Faith?
If you are interested in becoming Catholic, or a Catholic who has not been confirmed, please contact Father Xavier Lavagetto at xavierop@stanford.edu for information on our RCIA program

3. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Grad Bible Study:
Every Sunday at 6:30pm. We will be reading Acts of the Apostles this quarter. Contact Chiara (cgiam@stanford.edu) for more information.

Catholicism 101:
Grads and Young Adults, join us for dinner and discussion around topics impacting Catholics. We meet on Mondays at 7pm in the Nairobi Room at the Graduate Community Center.

Our last Catholicism 101 of the quarter will feature a panel of grads who are finishing up their programs here at Stanford. They will share their experience of how their Catholic faith and community has been an integral part of their faith journey while at Stanford. Dinner will be served at 7pm in the Nairobi room on the second floor of the Graduate Community Center.

The Reading Group:
Our next meeting is on THURSDAY JUNE 2nd at 7:30 at the Gelpis’ home on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We’ll discuss “AMORIS LAETITIA: THE JOY OF LOVE,” Pope Francis’s recent document on the family. This is an important and perhaps groundbreaking statement by Papa Francesco, and it should give us a lot to reflect on and discuss. It is readily available in both paperback and e-book format, and the text is probably also available on the Vatican website or the website of the conference of U.S. bishops. Please note the change of day for this meeting, from our usual Monday to Thursday. All are welcome to join the conversation.

1. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

3. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading
Proverbs 8:22-31
Before God created the earth or made the waters and the skies, Wisdom was there. Wisdom stood with God before the world was made.

Psalm 104
What Is Your Name
B Huijbers

Low Gluten Hosts Available:
To receive a low gluten host (not gluten free) please approach the celebrant during communion and request low gluten.
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Jesus told his disciples that he had much more to teach them. They would come to know all truth through the Holy Spirit. What belongs to Jesus in God is attested by the Spirit.

We have been justified by faith and have been given hope in trials and hardships. This hope will not leave us disappointed, for we have received God’s love through the Holy Spirit.

For all events, please confirm your attendance on our Facebook Page “Young Adult Circle” or contact us at yacircle@gmail.com. These and other upcoming events can be viewed at www.youngadultcircle.org.
