a way of life

new announcements

Sunday, May 31, 2015

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Holy Trinity is one of the most fundamental mysteries of our faith. We profess our belief in the Holy Trinity as part of the Nicene Creed, our Profession of Faith, which we join together to say at Mass (The Apostles' Creed, another form, may be used at Masses where children are in the majority). The word "creed" is drawn from the Latin word credo, which means, "I believe."

According to some traditions the Apostles composed the Apostles' Creed on Pentecost Sunday, which we celebrated one week ago. It is a natural progression for us to celebrate this Feast at this time, just after Pentecost and the end of our Easter season. As indicated we consider the Holy Trinity as a Mystery of our faith. A Mystery in this regard means that this is something that goes beyond our ability to genuinely understand it completely.

That and other mysteries of the faith are sometimes a challenge for us as Catholics. If we do not understand nor fully grasp something, we may have a tendency to doubt, to have reservations. One of the joys of stewardship is trusting completely in God, of accepting the fact that we may never have all the answers. Needing all the answers is a human failing. As professed Catholics we need to accept, and we need to follow and commit to the Lord's call to discipleship.

Grad Masses:

Plan to attend Mass with your families during Graduation Weekend. On Saturday, June 13, we have Mass in Spanish with mariachis at 1:00 p.m. There is a Mass in English with full choir at 5:30 (note the hour later than "normal" Sunday Mass). For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Please note:

There will be no Masses on Campus on Sunday, June 14th. The 10:30am Mass will move to the Sanctuary, 3rd Floor of Old Union on June 21 and for the remainder of the Summer.

Reach out to Children in Need:

Join us today, Sunday May 31st, after the 10:30am and 4:30pm Mass, for an opportunity to get to know Unbound - a Catholic charity helping children living in poverty. This type of one-on-one development has been proven to be very effective and allows you to establish a long-term, personal bond with someone from another part of the world who is struggling against difficult odds. For more information, contact Joanna at, joanna.nurmis@gmail.com.

Summer Ministries:

If you are here over the summer, even for a short time, we would be happy to have you involved in the liturgical life of the parish. Many of our "regular" ministers are away, so you would be welcomed with open arms. Ministries include choir/instruments, lectors (readers), greeters, altar servers, and eucharistic ministers. Training is provided. For info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
