building community

a new way of life

If you are over 65 years old, you probably remember Archbishop Fulton Sheen. Venerable Fulton Sheen was an American bishop who became known for his preaching and especially his work on television and radio. In fact, in the 1950s into the 1960s, he may have been the most recognizable Catholic in the United States.

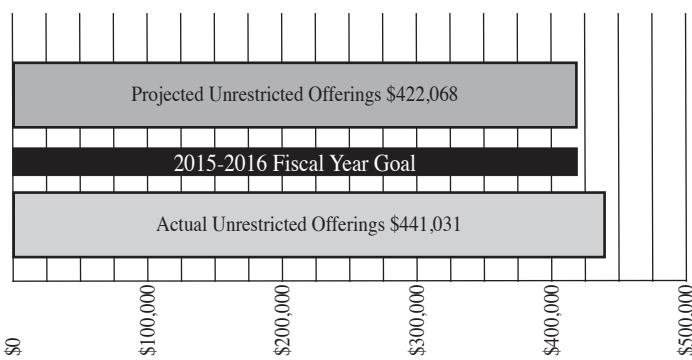

Sheen once said, "Show me your hands. Do they have scars from giving? Show me your feet. Are they wounded in service? Show me your heart. Have you left a place for divine love?" In many ways that statement parallels something St. Paul writes in our Second Reading from his letter to the Galatians: "From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body." St. Paul is saying the same thing as Archbishop Sheen — that is, "Do our lives reflect the presence of the Lord? Are we living as good stewards, as disciples, such that we, too, bear the marks of Jesus?"

We are not speaking of real scars, but we are talking about how the Lord has called us to follow Him, has asked us to take up the cross and follow Him as a matter of fact. If we strive to give, to serve, and to have faith as Sheen indicates, then we, too can rejoice as the Lord says to us, "Your names are written in heaven." We are called, and we need to respond to that call.

Lectio+Bible Study for Grads and Young Adults, Monday Nights!
Grads are invited to a Lectio+Bible Study. Join us in the Bogota room of the GCC (Graduate Community Center) from 7-8pm on Monday nights. Rosary to follow at 8:15. Since the GCC is above Ray's, people might be interested in getting food at 6:30 and then meeting upstairs. We will be looking in greater depth at the Sunday gospels, both from a meditative (lectio divina) and scholarly perspectives, and discussing how we can apply what we have found to daily life. For more information contact Amy (acalgaro@stanford.edu).

"Lunch and Learn":

Thursday, July 7 at Noon. All are welcome to a summertime series of lunch time discussions on current Catholic topics. The format is very casual. Lunch will be provided in the comfort of an air conditioned meeting space. We will read a short journal or news article and have an open discussion about the ideas presented. Join us on specific Thursdays of the summer months in the Common Room located on the 3rd floor of Old Union from 12-12:45pm. Please RSVP for food planning purposes, lalonso@stanford.edu

Altar Servers:

There is a need for several altar servers for the 4:30 Mass. We would especially encourage students to participate in this interactive ministry. Training is provided. You are scheduled approximately every 3 weeks. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Women's Summer Faith Sharing:

Calling young women ages 25-40 to participate! All are welcome: Single/Married/Divorced/Kids/NoKids/WorkingProfessionals/GradStudents. If you are going to be around this June and early July, this group could be for you! We will be meeting on Saturday Mornings (July 2, 9) from 9:30am-11:30am. Our small group is focused on deepening our understanding of Sunday Scripture and sharing faith/life connections in a supportive & confidential environment. Contact Rosemary Pesko: rothmer@gmail.com, 505-660-9396 to learn more and/or sign-up.

New to the Community?

Whether you are here for a new degree program or just a few weeks for a summer camp, you are welcome to participate in the liturgical ministries. Lectors, eucharistic ministers, greeters, altar servers, and singers/instrumentalists are all scheduled on a "drop-in" basis over the summer. Singers/instrumentalists meet at 3:30 in the church for a run-through rehearsal and then sing for Mass (9:30 for morning Mass in Old Union). Contact Teresa for more info, tpleins@stanford.edu.

CC@S:

We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

Interested in Exploring the Catholic Faith?

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, or a Catholic who has not been confirmed, please contact Father Xavier Lavagetto at xavierop@stanford.edu for information on our RCIA program

The Reading Group:

Our next meeting will be on Monday, August 22nd at the Gelpis' house on campus (870 Tolman Drive) to discuss Louise Erdrich's "LaRose." Erdrich's is our most distinguished and acclaimed Native American novelist, and her most recent book, "LaRose," is a powerful story of guilt and forgiveness. It is readily available in print and e-format. All are welcome to join the conversation.

God Is Calling You!

A vocation – marriage, priesthood, religious life, etc. - is a call to love and every baptized person has one! But perhaps you're feeling a tug to give your heart to Jesus exclusively, sitting at His feet like Mary Magdalene, or perhaps you've wondered what life is like as a cloistered nun? If you're a single, Catholic woman between the ages of 18-40 years, we invite you to spend a day of discernment on July 16th with the Dominican Contemplative Nuns of Corpus Christi Monastery in Menlo Park, CA. Catch a glimpse of the same hidden life of love that has been lived at the heart of the Church and the Dominican Order since St. Dominic founded the first community of Dominican nuns in 1206. For more information or to reserve your spot, contact Sister Joseph Marie, O.P., at vocations@nunsmenlo.org, or visit our website at <http://nunsmenlo.org/discernment-days/>. Space is limited and fills fast!
