a way of life

new announcements

Sunday, July 5, 2015

St. Paul declares in his letter to the Corinthians, the Second Reading, "For when I am weak, then I am strong." Certainly anyone who knows much about St. Paul would not view him as a weak man. This is a man who, through his strong faith, put his life in jeopardy constantly. He endured imprisonment and shipwrecks. Yet, he admits to having weaknesses.

There is something humiliating in admitting one's weaknesses. Humility is an important trait in living a life of stewardship. Being able to recognize and admit our shortcomings is essential for us to have the strength Paul demonstrates. That is his point in today's reading, and it contains an important message for each of us.

The reason St. Paul finds strength in his limitations is because he is aware that the Lord will provide the power needed in the midst of those deficiencies. Paul's life is God-centered. Living life that way is exactly the way one can best follow stewardship as a way of life. Paul prefaces his statement about being weak and strong by writing the message he has been given by the Lord, who said to him: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." May we pray for the strength of God's presence, and may we be willing to seek humility to truly find our strengths.

Mark 6:1-6

Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Reading Group:

NOTE DATE CHANGE

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, JULY 28th at 7:30 at the Gelpis' house on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We'll be reading & discussing KAZUO ISHIGURO's recent novel "THE BURIED GIANT." Ishiguro is a Japanese writer who is English & lives in London. His most famous previous novels are "Remains of the Day," which was made into an acclaimed movie some years ago, and "Never Let Me Go." "The Buried Giant" takes place in England after the death of King Arthur & the scattering of the Round Table in a tense "peace" between the native Britons and the invading Saxons. It is a fable for adults; the plot involves a journey/quest and invokes Arthurian legend and fairy tale and the Anglo-Saxon epic "Beowulf" (including a dragon and monsters). The encounters along the way turn on the deep and abiding themes of love and death, memory and guilt, war and peace, loyalty and community. All are welcome to join the conversation.
