building community

a way of life

Sunday, July 19, 2015

The image of the shepherd and His sheep is one of the most enduring ones within our Christian faith. Jesus uses this reference consistently throughout His teachings. The Lord, however, does more than tell us He is a shepherd. The idea of shepherds and shepherding occurs more than 200 times in the Bible. We hear of references to shepherds from Abel in Genesis to King David to the shepherds who came to worship Jesus the night He was born.

Sheep are among the most defenseless animals, and they are completely dependent upon the shepherd to feed them or lead them to food and water; to keep them from wandering aimlessly; and to protect them because they are so vulnerable. In today's Gospel the Lord recognizes that the people are "sheep without a shepherd" and He begins to teach them.

He is feeding them with the word of God. The Hebrew word for "shepherding" can also be translated "feeding." Jesus calls us to serve as shepherds for those around us, just as He shepherds us. It is this stewardship of our family, friends, co-workers, and others which allows us to show the love we are expected to demonstrate. Even our word "pastor" derives from the Latin word pastor which means, quite simply "shepherd." An anonymous quote captures what our relationship to the Lord should be perfectly: "When you cannot sleep, do not count sheep; talk to the Shepherd."

new announcements

Welcome Fr. Emmanuel!

Today begins a new chapter in CC@S' life as well as its newest member, Fr. Emmanuel Taylor. You may remember Fr. Emmanuel from his prior stint leading Confirmation classes at CC@S as a seminarian. He now returns as Parochial Vicar, replacing Fr. Daniel who has been newly assigned to the Newman Center at UNLV.

Prior to becoming a priest, Fr. Emmanuel was a marine biologist. He's already shared some hair-raising tales of the high seas on a research vessel! One of the highlights of his past year was leading a Hack-a-thon at St. Dominic's Church in the City. A hack-a-thon is an event at which computer programmers, graphic designers, interface designers and project managers collaborate intensively on software projects. Fr. Emmanuel's team was tasked with creating a technology product that would help evangelize the culture. This year, Fr. Emmanuel will be leading our new student program, Evangelical Catholic, a program designed to inspire, train and support students to launch dynamic small group outreach. We are excited to have Fr. Emmanuel as part of our team.

Fr. Emmanuel will be handling all of the Masses and confessions while Fr. Xavier is on vacation this month. Please introduce yourself! His email is e4op@stanford.edu.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
 we adore you, we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 23:1-6

The Lord was angry and promised to punish the shepherds who misled and scattered the flock. The Lord God would gather the flock and appoint new shepherds to care for it.

Room Request to Support Missions in Asia:

The St. Francis Xavier Lay Missionary Society is looking for someone to offer a room for a young woman who is devoting herself to our missionary cause in Asia. She is a recent graduate from Stanford and an active member of our community. Desired room availability is for six months from July 31. If you would like to share your home in support of missions in Asia, please contact Tricia at: tricia@laymissionary.org Thank you and God bless!

Vallombrosa Retreat & Conference Center in Menlo Park, which is owned by the Archdiocese of San Francisco, is seeking to hire a full-time receptionist & events coordinator. Immediate opening for someone who is a "people person," is organized, has basic computer skills (knowledge of Microsoft Office preferable), and is comfortable meeting the public, as this person is often the first person a guest meets at Vallombrosa. Pleasant working environment. To apply or to request further information, write to apply@vallombrosa.org.

Young Adults

Dinner at Bierhaus:

Tues. July 21st at 7:30pm, 383 Castro St., Mountain View. The Young Adult group meets for its monthly social gathering.

These and other upcoming events can be viewed at www.youngadultcircle.org.

REFRAIN

VERSES

Second Reading

Ephesians 2:13-18

In Christ, we are reconciled and united with each other and with God. Christ Jesus came to announce the good news. Through him we come in one Spirit to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

F. O'Carroll

The sheep of my flock, says the Lord,
Hearing my voice, they will listen.
They will follow me, for I know them, they are mine.

Gospel

Mark 6:30-34

The disciples returned from work and went with Jesus to a quiet place to rest. Crowds followed. Jesus took pity on them, "for they were like sheep without a shepherd."

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory I Will Arise T. Booth

Refrain

I will a-rise and go to Je - sus. He will em-brace me in his arms. In the arms of my dear Sav - ior, oh, there are ten thou - sand charms.

Sanctus Mass of Creation Marty Haugen

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord God of hosts. Heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est.
 Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Memorial Acclamation: Mass of Creation Marty Haugen

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, un - til you come a - gain.

Amen Mass of Creation Marty Haugen

A - men, a - men, a - men. A - men, a - men, a - men.

Lunch and Learn:

Thursday, July 23 and August 27, 12 noon.

All are welcome to a summertime series of lunch time discussions on current Catholic topics. The format is very casual. Lunch will be provided in the comfort of an air conditioned meeting space. We will read a short journal or news article and have an open discussion about the ideas presented. Join us the fourth Thursday of the summer months in the Common Room located on the 3rd floor of Old Union from 12-12:45pm. Contact Lourdes, lalonso@stanford.edu for more information.

Children's Religious Education:

Watch the bulletin for upcoming information regarding our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Children's Program. Registration in early September. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu

Back-to-School Backpacks for Children/Students from Low-Income Families:

The Catholic Community at Stanford is hosting a Family Giving Tree Back-to-School Backpack Drive for children/students from low-income families. For more information please contact Peter Barling at peter_barling@hotmail.com.

Volunteer Opportunities

St. Anthony Padua's Dining Room:

The CC@S serves the needy and homeless at St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park every first and fourth Saturday of the month. If you would like to volunteer on Saturday, July 25 or August 1 from 8:30 - 1pm or a subset thereof, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu (650 302 6902) no later than the Wednesday before to discuss and/or have a volunteer position reserved for you. Christ performed many miracles; at St. A's you work tiny miracles that spread His love.

Grads

Grads Share Your Gifts With Your Community As A Leader:

Are you being called to share your gifts in our Grad or Young Adult Ministry? We would like to invite you to consider sharing your gifts in any way you feel called like joining the team that plans our weekly Catholicism 101 nights, leading a small group, organizing a service project or social event, or any other way that will help us build community. If you would like to explore this further over a meal or coffee, please contact Lourdes, lalonso@stanford.edu

Calling Me Home

Tom Kendia

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. In verdent pastures he gives me repose.
Besides restful waters he leads me, he refreshes my soul.

He guides me in right paths for his name sake.
Even though I walk through the dark valley
I fear no evil, with you by my side,
your rod and your staff give me courage.

You spread the table before me, in the sight of all my foes
You anoint my head with oil: my cup overflows.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever, in the house of the Lord forever.

Reading Group:

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, JULY 28th at 7:30 at the Gelpis' house on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We'll be reading & discussing KAZUO ISHIGURO's recent novel "THE BURIED GIANT." Ishiguro is a Japanese writer who is English & lives in London. His most famous previous novels are "Remains of the Day," which was made into an acclaimed movie some years ago, and "Never Let Me Go." "The Buried Giant" takes place in England after the death of King Arthur & the scattering of the Round Table in a tense "peace" between the native Britons and the invading Saxons. It is a fable for adults; the plot involves a journey/quest and invokes Arthurian legend and fairy tale and the Anglo-Saxon epic "Beowulf" (including a dragon and monsters). The encounters along the way turn on the deep and abiding themes of love and death, memory and guilt, war and peace, loyalty and community. All are welcome to join the conversation.
