A Big Hairy Audacious Goal to build community.

Dear Prayer Partner, please pray for:

a way of life

The readings for this 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time speak of God's incredible mercy; St. Paul in his letter to the Romans reminds us how challenging prayer can be; however, Jesus in His Parable of the Sower speaks to the very heart of stewardship. Christ could not make it more clear in the parable as He identifies directly what the story means. The Lord wants us to understand. The field is the world, with each of us as an important part of it. The seeds are the Word of God, given to us, scattered among us. The crop is the grain, but unfortunately tares – a word used to describe bad seeds and weeds – can come along with what has been planted. Stewardship calls for us to accept and hear the Word. It challenges us to take that Word and to do something positive with it. The Word is a gift to us. We must nurture that gift and return it to God with surplus. Nevertheless, the Lord knows it is not easy, but it is something we must undertake and be committed to. For truly at the end, at judgment, God will know what is genuine stewardship motivated by love, and what is false stewardship, generated for some other reason. Pope Francis is a steward; he knows that judging is God's work. At each papal audience he looks for and seeks people with diseases which disfigure them, and he stops and he embraces them. He knows the difference between wheat and tares.

Stewardship
a way of life

GENERAL COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Statement Of California Bishops On The Transport Of Displaced Migrant Children And Families To California:

In recent days, the people of our state have witnessed the arrival of hundreds of displaced people, mostly women and children, to various locations in Southern California. The Bishops of California wish to express our solidarity with these immigrant brothers and sisters who are coming to our state and to offer our prayer that God will deliver them to the safe environment they seek.

We also recognize our responsibility as a Church of compassion to come to their aid and help provide them with the practical and pastoral support they so need. These children and families have journeyed to our country, fleeing violence and destitution in Central America.

Sadly, their experience in California has thus far been marked by hostility and near chaos. They are exhausted, afraid and clinging to hope. The gravity of this situation transcends politics; it is truly a humanitarian crisis that calls all of us, Catholics and others of good will, to respond with compassion and with urgent action.

The response of Catholic agencies and other community-based groups has already begun. Catholic Charities, working in collaboration with directly affected dioceses and other service organizations, is mobilizing to help these immigrants in centers of hospitality and assistance. Many individuals have contacted our parishes and social service agencies asking how they can help. This reflects the best of the American spirit.

We are particularly concerned about the safety and security of the thousands of unaccompanied children that have crossed our border, without a parent or guardian and without family ties to the US. They desperately need our help. Federal officials believe that groups of migrants will continue to arrive throughout the summer. The most affected dioceses will be asking parishioners and others for donations of time and money. We ask you to respond to this call. In this critical moment, Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan reminds us of what we are called to do.

Federal, state and local government agencies also have a role to play in responding to this heartbreaking situation. We urge Congress to appropriate the resources necessary to care for unaccompanied children. We also urge opposition to the "fast track authority" requested by the Administration that could send children back to the violence they attempted to flee without a proper hearing—and in violation of their rights. We recognize the passion surrounding this issue. We call on all Californians of good will to express themselves with civility and respect, and to refrain from violence. We ask the Catholic community to join together in solidarity with these children of God, our brothers and sisters, to provide help and give them hope.

Our strength as a nation has always been a matter of the heart. May the heart of Christ guide the people of California to a just and compassionate response for these huddled masses of children gathered at our door.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty,
 Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God,
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

Back-to-School Backpacks for Children in Need!

Late breaking news: The warehouse location is now known (see below). Just a few spots left to help sort backpacks, so sign up today. Also, Backpacks are now due! Please bring them to any Sunday Mass or to Lourdes' office in Old Union, before the end of July. Thanks!

The Catholic Community at Stanford is hosting a Family Giving Tree Back-to-School Backpack Drive for children from low-income families. There are 3 ways you can help:

1) On Sundays during the months of June and July you can bring new backpacks filled with school supplies for children in grades K-12. Go to <http://www.familygivingtree.org/images/collateral/BTScard.pdf> for lists of supplies by grade level. For a Tax Receipt go to the following URL: <http://www.familygivingtree.org/donations/tax.htm>.

Donated backpacks will be collected after each Sunday Mass or can be dropped off at Lourdes' office in Old Union until 7/31 to be brought to the FGT warehouse on 8/1. Tags denoting grade level will be available at each Sunday Mass or at Lourdes' office. The Family Giving Tree asks that you do not purchase red or blue colored backpacks as these colors are associated with gangs.

2) Make a donation online to purchase backpacks/supplies at the following URL: <http://vgt.familygivingtree.org/ccas/>.

3) Volunteer at the Family Giving Tree Warehouse on Sat, 8/2, 11am to 1pm (location: 581 Race St, San José, CA 95126)
