preaching notes

Prayer is all about relationship: the friendship between ourselves and the Lord, and the graces that flow from that in our relationships with one another.

There are hundreds of resources to aid us in deepening our prayer lives. Here are a few I'm especially fond of. If you'd like more, just ask me.

Lectio+Bible Study for Grads and Young Adults, Monday Nights!

Grads are invited to a Lectio+Bible Study. Join us in the Bogotá room of the GCC (Graduate Community Center) from 7-8pm on Monday nights. Rosary to follow at 8:15. Since the GCC is above Ray's, people might be interested in getting food at 6:30 and then meeting upstairs. We will be looking in greater depth at the Sunday gospels, both from a meditative (lectio divina) and scholarly perspectives, and discussing how we can apply what we have found to daily life. For more information contact Amy (acalgaro@stanford.edu).

“Lunch and Learn”: Next Meeting TBA

Selected Thursdays at Noon. All are welcome to a summertime series of lunch time discussions on current Catholic topics. The format is very casual. Lunch will be provided in the comfort of an air conditioned meeting space. We will read a short journal or news article and have an open discussion about the ideas presented. Join us on specific Thursdays of the summer months in the Common Room located on the 3rd floor of Old Union from 12-12:45pm. Please RSVP for food planning purposes, lalonso@stanford.edu

Altar Servers:

There is a need for several altar servers for the 4:30 Mass. We would especially encourage students to participate in this interactive ministry. Training is provided. You are scheduled approximately every 3 weeks. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

New to the Community?

Whether you are here for a new degree program or just a few weeks for a summer camp, you are welcome to participate in the liturgical ministries. Lectors, eucharistic ministers, greeters, altar servers, and singers/instrumentalists are all scheduled on a “drop-in” basis over the summer. Singers/instrumentalists meet at 3:30 in the church for a run-through rehearsal and then sing for Mass (9:30 for morning Mass in Old Union). Contact Teresa for more info, tpleins@stanford.edu.

CC@S:

We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

First Reading

Genesis 1:20-32

The Lord was outraged at the sinfulness of Sodom and Gomorrah and was determined to destroy them. Abraham interceded on behalf of the innocent who lived in those towns; therefore, the Lord relented.

Psalm 116

I Will Walk in the Presence of God

Cooney / Daigle

I will walk in the pres-ence of God, in the land of the liv-ing: I will walk in the pres-ence of God.

In my hour of despair, bereft and betrayed, I prayed, "Yahweh, be my breath!"
The death of a servant cuts close to your heart. For God of the living you are.

Your servant am I like my mother before me.

You restore me, loosing my bonds.

My hands in thanksgiving to Yahweh I raise. O join me in glorious praise.

My vows I will make, and may everyone hear me!

Draw near me, O servants of God.

I stand here in the midst of them: Your house, your heart, Jerusalem.

Second Reading

Colossians 2:6-14

The author of Colossians wrote, "In baptism you died and rose with Christ. God pardoned your sin and gave you new life in Christ. God canceled every claim against you by nailing it to the cross."

Luke 11:1-13

Apostle's Creed

Offertory

instrumental

Take it to Worship.

The preaching has prepared you to become a pro in your life and in your faith. You become pro by offering what you live in your life to God here at the mass. At the time of the offertory the General Instruction of the Roman Missal teaches: "In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people of God's own possession and a royal Priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the Priest but also together with him and so that they may learn to offer their very selves. (GIRM, 95)

You are invited to make this offering of yourselves along with the bread and wine offered at the altar by praying with our priest.

The priest invites:

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

The people reply:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

I Will Lift Up My Eyes

Tom Conry

I will lift up my eyes at his name to the one who knows me well. (To Verses) 1. You are my God, whom I seek with my life; for you I thirst, as the dry earth for wa-ter. Life-less and parched, with-out you I am no-where, no one at all. 2. Thus have I seen you in your ho-ly house, with my own eyes, how faith-ful and sure. More than my 2. life, your mer-cy en-dures long-er than time. 3. Thus shall I bless you while I am a-live; call-ing on you, my breath and my bread. And with a song through day and the dark-ness cling-ing to you. 4. And I shall see that day when his jus-tice and pow'r will break the chains that bind me. And mine en-e-mies' lies-strown brok-en and emp-ty: his might-y hand, that aw-ful grace.
