preaching notes

In the Parable of the Rich Fool, Jesus said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." (Lk 12:15). Most of the Parables shared by the Lord in Holy Scripture address the issue of possessions and how we treat them, how we use them as a measurement of success. Consistently those who write about the challenges we face in living lives of stewardship point to this same problem. Jesus certainly understood it.

Christ was living in a society that was very different from that we experience today, but that basic difficulty existed then, as it does now. The problem is not that possessions exist, but that they can become the dominant motivation in our lives and how we live them.

The Lord cautions us, as He does in the Parable of the Rich Fool from today's Gospel, that storing up treasure and possessions means that we may be wealthy in the eyes of society, but not in "what matters to God." This is one of our ongoing stumbling blocks to being stewards living a Christian life.

Our Holy Father Pope Francis speaks often about this same problem. In a recent homily he said, "True joy does not come from things or from possessing. It is born from the relationship with others; it is born from feeling accepted, understood, and loved, and from accepting, understanding, and loving. It is saying to one another, 'You are important to me,' not 'What you have is important to me.' Possessions are nothing but an illusion." catholicsteward.com

announcements

Save the Date:

We will be hosting our third annual All Community Picnic at Arbor House on Sunday, August 28. Please save the date for this wonderful day kicked off with a Mass in the garden, followed by a delicious picnic, games and a jumpy house for the littles.

Lectio+Bible Study for Grads and Young Adults, Monday Nights!

Grads are invited to a Lectio+Bible Study. Join us in the Bogotá room of the GCC (Graduate Community Center) from 7-8pm on Monday nights. Rosary to follow at 8:15. Since the GCC is above Ray's, people might be interested in getting food at 6:30 and then meeting upstairs. We will be looking in greater depth at the Sunday gospels, both from a meditative (lectio divina) and scholarly perspectives, and discussing how we can apply what we have found to daily life. For more information contact Amy (acalgaro@stanford.edu).

"Lunch and Learn": Next Meeting TBA

Selected Thursdays at Noon. All are welcome to a summertime series of lunch time discussions on current Catholic topics. The format is very casual. Lunch will be provided in the comfort of an air conditioned meeting space. We will read a short journal or news article and have an open discussion about the ideas presented. Join us on specific Thursdays of the summer months in the Common Room located on the 3rd floor of Old Union from 12-12:45pm. Please RSVP for food planning purposes, lalonso@stanford.edu

Altar Servers:

There is a need for several altar servers for the 4:30 Mass. We would especially encourage students to participate in this interactive ministry. Training is provided. You are scheduled approximately every 3 weeks. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

New to the Community?

Whether you are here for a new degree program or just a few weeks for a summer camp, you are welcome to participate in the liturgical ministries. Lectors, eucharistic ministers, greeters, altar servers, and singers/instrumentalists are all scheduled on a "drop-in" basis over the summer. Singers/instrumentalists meet at 3:30 in the church for a run-through rehearsal and then sing for Mass (9:30 for morning Mass in Old Union). Contact Teresa for more info, tpleins@stanford.edu.

CC@S:

We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

The Reading Group:

Our next meeting will be on Monday, August 22nd at the Gelpis' house on campus (870 Tolman Drive) to discuss Louise Erdrich's "LaRose." Erdrich's is our most distinguished and acclaimed Native American novelist, and her most recent book, "LaRose," is a powerful story of guilt and forgiveness. It is readily available in print and e-format. All are welcome to join the conversation.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

First Reading

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:2-23

All things are vanity! Some people have labored skillfully a whole lifetime, but the fruits of their labor are left to others who did nothing. What good comes from hard work? Everything is vanity.

Psalm 95

If Today You Hear God's Voice

David Haas

If to - day you hear God's voice, hard-en not your hearts.

If to - day you hear God's voice, hard-en not your hearts.

- 1) Come, ring out our joy to the Lord, hail the Rock who saves us, let us come now before him, with songs let us hail the Lord.
- 2) Come, let us bow and bend low, let us kneel before him who made us, for he is our God; we his people, the flock that is led by his hand.
- 3) O that today you would hear his voice, "Harden not your hearts, as on that day in the desert when your parents put me to the test."

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Since you now belong to Christ, set your heart on things above rather than on things of earth. For in Christ there is no Greek or Jew, no slave or free person. Christ is everything in you.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

F. O'Carroll

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

Jesus told a parable about the rich man who stored up all his wealth in order to eat, drink, and be merry. God told him, "You fool! Tonight your life shall be required of you." In this way Jesus encouraged people to grow rich not for themselves but in God's sight.

Song To Jesus Christ

|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. You have passed by, you came  | like fire that lights the skies, |
| 2. You have passed by, as brief  | as foot-prints on the sea;       |
| 3. You have passed by, a strange | and yet fa - mil - iar face,     |

Sparks fall - ing from your name	glow in our hearts like eyes.
Why did you go so far?	You went too far for me.
A frag - ment of our being,	a flick - ring light, a trace.

In tatters hangs your word, draped round our world and torn;
 You are for ever now as deep in God as breath;
 Your light is in my blood, my body is your day;

Now we shall live in you; like clothing you are worn.
 No stillness captures you, unthink-able your death.
 I hope my whole life long to meet you on the way.

You are invited to make this offering of yourselves along with the bread and wine offered at the altar by praying with our priest.

The priest invites:

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

The people reply:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.
