Who's the Greatest?

SEPTEMBER 1, 2013

fr Isidore Clarke suggests that we learn to laugh at ourselves.

At a formal meal, seating arrangements are important. Usually the most distinguished guests sit at the top of the table. To avoid the embarrassing situation described in today's Gospel a wise host will decide the order of precedence beforehand.

Here Jesus makes fun of those pretentious people who scrambled for the most prestigious places, only to be demoted lower on the arrival of someone of greater importance. How ridiculous would the status-seeker then appear! All would have had a good laugh -- except the butt of Christ's observation! Beware, Jesus must be getting at you and me, whenever we have an inflated idea of our own importance!

But Jesus wasn't interested in table etiquette, nor in helping us to avoid public humiliation! Still less is he urging a false humility in the hope that people, recognising our true worth, will give us a more prestigious place. Such a person would simply be a crafty status seeker -- far worse than someone who simply grabbed the best seat.

This meal, like all the others in the Gospels, anticipated the heavenly banquet. Here Jesus is telling us that we are not the ones to decide which position we deserve. Our very presence at the heavenly banquet is God's gift. None of us deserves this. He will overturn our sense of priorities and will give the highest places to those whom the worldly consider to be the least important.

The meal described in today's Gospel provides an interlude on Christ's journey to Jerusalem and the cross. That context gives special force to the folly of being status seekers.

Jesus himself came to serve, not to be served. While Adam fell through his pride leading him to strive to become equal to Almighty God, the Son of God emptied himself of the glory which was his by right. Jesus became humble and obedient, even to death on the cross. The God of glory became despised and rejected. And yet it was precisely in his lowliness that Jesus revealed his true greatness. On the cross he showed the power and generosity of his love for his heavenly Father and for us sinners. Jesus, who lowered himself to become the least, was raised to become the first in the Kingdom of Heaven.

The crucified Christ shows us where our true greatness lies. Not in the honour or status we may bestow on ourselves, but in following Jesus along the way of the cross. Like him, we are called to serve, rather than be served, to give of ourselves, rather than grab for ourselves. Sometimes that will be costly, painful and humiliating. But, with the grace of God, this will bring out the very best in us. And God will give us a place of honour at his heavenly banquet.

We Christians could easily make the mistake of thinking that this parable was directed at the Pharisees alone. If so, we should remember that the disciples were forever bickering among themselves as to which of them was the greatest. The sons of Zebedee even sought privileged positions in the Kingdom.

The full meaning of this parable is brought home forcefully in the light of the Last Supper. As Jesus and the apostles celebrated the salvation God had brought to his people in the past, Christ committed himself to saving the world through his death on the cross. While he was preparing to be brought low, his followers were striving to exalt themselves. They started arguing as to which of them was the greatest -- immediately after Jesus had celebrated the first Eucharist and had prophesied that one of them would betray him. What a dreadful, frightening irony! This should warn all who are too full of their own importance. Possibly any one of us!

Certainly we should take God very seriously. But let's be able to laugh at ourselves and our ridiculous posturing. That's far better than God and other people despising us as pretentious fools! Rather than our instinctively thinking we're the greatest, we should humbly recognise the dignity and worth of other people -- and leave the ranking to God.

fr. Isidore Clarke is a member of the community at Holy Cross Priory, Leicester, and Provincial Chaplain to the Dominican Secular Institute.

GENERAL COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer Requests For Incoming Freshmen:

Leaving home can be exciting and challenging for both students and their parents. We ask that you pray for the incoming students and their families as they prepare to come to Stanford. Below is a list of the first names of incoming freshmen who have provided their names to the Catholic Community. Please pray that they will find this to be a time of great joy and expectation. Also, pray that they will find their way to loving communities here at Stanford that will accompany them on their journeys.

Religious Education Registration:

Registration for our religious education program for children (ages 3-12) will be held following both the 10:30 and 4:30 Masses on September 29. A junior high level class will be added this year, with the possibility of confirmation included. Programs are open to the children of current students, faculty/staff families, and registered, active parishioners. For more information, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Infant Baptisms:

Our next celebration of baptism is Nov. 3 during the 4:30 Mass in Memorial Church. There is a required preparation course for parents on Oct. 26, 10-11:30 a.m. Baptisms are celebrated for all families of current students, faculty, staff, postdocs, and registered community members. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Assistants Needed for Children's Sunday Morning Religious Ed Program:

Many of the community's children take part in a Montessori-based religious education program on Sunday mornings. The children range in age from 3-13. Several volunteer assistants are needed to help the full-time catechists as the children work with various materials (books of the Bible, parables, prayer corner, learning the parts of the Mass, etc). Sessions run 8:45-10:20am, being in early October, and break during academic breaks. This is an excellent ministry if you like children and enjoy watching them learn about God and their faith. For info, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Small Faith Group for the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius:

We are organizing a small faith group to practice St. Ignatius spiritual exercise. You will spend 10-20 minutes everyday for meditation and journaling individually, and once a week the small faith group will get together for sharing and praying. The book, The Ignatian Adventure by Kevin O'Brien, SJ, will be used as a guideline. If you are interested, contact Eun-Soo (eschoi@stanford.edu) promptly, so that we can set up our schedule and start soon.

New Choir Members:

Come be involved in one of the "front and center" ministries! The music ministries at all Masses are open for new singers. A special need is women for the 4:30 Mass. Rehearsal is on Wednesday night during the academic term. No auditions required, training and audio files available for most music. We would love to have you involved. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Health Care Providers:

Consider volunteering at Samaritan House Free Clinic in Redwood City. Samaritan House provides free medical and dental services to low-income and uninsured adults in San Mateo County. You can volunteer as little as four hours a month directly at the clinic or see patients in your own office. Patients would receive free blood work and x-rays as well as most medications free of charge. For more information contact: Jason Wong, M.D. (650) 839-1447 jason@samaritanhouse.com or Melissa Moss (650) 523-0819 mmoss@samaritanhouse.com

Gathering

All Are Welcome

Marty Haugen

1. Let us build a house where love can dwell And
2. Let us build a house where proph-ets speak And
3. Let us build a house where love is found In all can safe-ly live, A place where saints and words are strong and true, Where all God's chil-dren wa-ter, wine and wheat: A ban-quet hall on chil-dren tell How hearts learn to for-dare to seek To dream God's reign aho-ly ground, Where peace and jus-tice give. Built of hopes and dreams and vi-sions, Rock of new. Here the cross shall stand as wit-ness And as meet. Here the love of God, through Je-sus, Is re-faith and vault of grace; Here the sym- and bol of God's grace; Here as vealed in time and space; As we love of Christ shall end di-vi-sions:

one we claim the faith of Je-sus:
share in Christ the feast that frees us:

All are wel-come, all are wel-come, all are wel-come in this place.

First Reading

Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Conduct your affairs more humbly, the greater you, and God will favor you. A wise person always takes joy in listening to others.

Psalm

For Lowly People

T. Lowenthal

REFRAIN: All

For low-ly peo-ple your hands are o-pen, you give hope to the a-ban-doned. Their blood is pre-cious in your sight, you buy their free-dom from slav-er-y.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24

Our God draws near to our mountain and city. The judge of all comes close into our assembly. Jesus our mediator reaches to touch us and invites us to touch him.

Gospel Acc. Alleluia: Our God Is Speaking

Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

The exalted shall be humbled and the humble exalted. When you have a dinner, invite persons who cannot repay you. God rewards you in the resurrection of the just.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Recessional I Will Not Die Tom Conry

Verses

1, 5. I will not die be-fore I've lived to see that land;
2. I will not rest un-til your dawn is in my eyes;
3. And I will breathe in that might-y wind of jus-tice;
4. You will stand up for the poor and the need-y;

firm as the earth, your own prom-ise.
that frag-ile light, new like morn-ing.
I'll know my name and rise up sing-ing.
you'll break the chains that bind your peo-ple.

I'll not let go un-til I've held it in my hand;
I will not sleep be-fore I've wak-ened to that sun-rise;
And I will call un-til my words bring on the thun-der;
For you are home for the lost and the des-p'rate;

that word of hope, and gen-tle laugh-ter.
and all the world knows your glo-ry.
washed in that rain, then I'll know you.
your strong right hand goes be-fore us.

Refrain

For your right hand has de-liv-ered us from death;

You have re-gard-ed our tears,

you who are good-ness and grace.

Community Prayer Corner

8/21/13 - Please pray for V & her family. Her young daughter has been diagnosed with cancer & currently is receiving medical treatment.

Please continue praying for D. She is still not well. Her left knee area continues to bother her, making it difficult to walk.

Also, please, continued prayers for R., her husband & children. They are going thru a very painful & difficult family situation,

In addition, please pray for OL who is very sick due to complications from his diabetes.

G also needs our prayers. He was recently hospitalized & is now slowly recovering.

Finally, ML's loving husband of many years, recently passed away & she is having a very difficult time with this. Please pray for her.

Lord show your kindness & mercy & let your will be done. Thank you & God bless. MJ
