building community

a new way of life

At the end of today's Gospel Reading from St. Luke, Jesus says a lot about what it means to be His disciple — the demands and the expectations. As His final statement in the reading, He says, "...anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

This is another case where the translation from the original Greek may produce misunderstanding. Most of us understand the word "renounce" as meaning "reject" or "hand over." However, another meaning of the Greek word might be "to say goodbye to." That is the real message, and it is one with a strong stewardship element.

What the Lord may be trying to communicate is our possessions can stand in the way of being His disciple and being a good steward. It is a question of trust. Trust is at the center of a stewardship way of life. Jesus tells us that we need to trust in Him to a greater extent than in ourselves or in what we may possess. That is, of course, not easy for us.

Nevertheless, to place our trust in the Lord is exactly what it means to be His disciple. Psalms perfectly captures the challenge we face and provides the answer to the challenge as well. In Psalms we are told: "Man says to God, 'Show me and I will trust You.' And God replies "Trust me and I will show you'."

Encounter Christ Groups For Permanent Community (Pc Ec)

Join us as we expand the Encounter Christ Small Faith Communities to the Permanent Community. The purpose of the PC EC Small Groups is to:

- bring us into a closer relationship with Jesus
- make deeper spiritual friendships
- enliven our community of faith and
- make our experience of church at CC@S truly meaningful

There will be five small groups of 8-10 people per group this fall, each facilitated by a member of the community who has volunteered to host the meeting:

- Women's group
- Men's group
- Mixed group of men and women (all ages)
- Young Adult (20s+30s) group, both men and women
- CGS parents group

Commitment:

- 90 minutes 1x/week for 6 weeks
- October 3-November 13
- All materials will be provided
- Participants must commit to the entire six weeks

If you miss this term, we will have a second PC EC session during Lent.

TO SIGN UP or for more information, email Nancy Greenfield (ngreenfield875@gmail.com) BY SEPTEMBER 25. Join us for this great adventure!

Catholic Charities' Continuum of Care:

Finding compassionate care for the people you love can be a challenge. Dealing with the issues of Alzheimer's, dementia, and other aging issues is difficult enough. Day Break Cares can help. We offer services to give you some peace-of-mind for your loved ones. We provide non-medical Homecare, Senior Activity Centers, and Behavioral Health Care. Call our Elder Care Line to learn more about these services, and also receive connections, counseling, and advice for seniors and their families. Our Senior Care Specialists can be reached at (408)-831-0441.

Lectio+Bible Study for Grads and Young Adults, Monday Nights!

Grads are invited to a Lectio+Bible Study. Join us in the Bogotá room of the GCC (Graduate Community Center) from 7-8pm on Monday nights. Rosary to follow at 8:15. Since the GCC is above Ray's, people might be interested in getting food at 6:30 and then meeting upstairs. We will be looking in greater depth at the Sunday gospels, both from a meditative (lectio divina) and scholarly perspectives, and discussing how we can apply what we have found to daily life. For more information contact Amy (acalgaro@stanford.edu).

Announcements

CC@S:

We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

New to the Community?

Whether you are here for a new degree program or just a few weeks for a summer camp, you are welcome to participate in the liturgical ministries. Lectors, eucharistic ministers, greeters, altar servers, and singers/instrumentalists are all scheduled on a "drop-in" basis over the summer. Singers/instrumentalists meet at 3:30 in the church for a run-through rehearsal and then sing for Mass (9:30 for morning Mass in Old Union). Contact Teresa for more info, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Interested in Exploring the Catholic Faith?

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, or a Catholic who has not been confirmed, please contact Father Xavier Lavagetto at xavierop@stanford.edu for information on our RCIA program.

1216 Society:

In honor of our 800th Jubilee, we invite you to join our new 1216 Society by making a monthly gift on your credit card. Like the faithful of the last eight centuries, your support makes our life of preaching possible. Become a monthly donor to the Western Dominican Province by 12/31/16 and be remembered forever on the Founding Members plaque at St. Albert's Priory. Visit opwest.org/1216 or call 510-658-8722. Your support helps us lead souls to Christ!

Volunteer Opportunities

St. Anthony Padua's Dining Room:

The CC@S prepares and serves hot meals to those in need at St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park (<http://paduadiningroom.com>) every first and fourth Saturday of the month. If you would like to volunteer on Saturday, Sept. 24 from 8:30 - 1pm or a subset thereof, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu (650 302 6902) by the Wednesday before for information or to have a volunteer position reserved for you. At St. Anthony's you will invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind to dine at the banquet.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One;
you alone are the Lord.
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God, the Father. Amen

First Reading

Wisdom 9:13-18

No one understands heaven or earth completely, but God sends wisdom and the Holy Spirit to light up the paths of those who search for the way.

The Reading Group:

The next meeting will be on Monday September 19th at 7:30pm at the Gelpis' house on campus (870 Tolman Drive). We'll be discussing "Not in God's Name: Confronting Religious Violence" by Rabbi Jonathan Sacks. An internationally recognized scholar, Sacks argues that religiously inspired violence often originates in a misreading of the biblical texts, with particular attention to "Genesis." We'll be concentrating on Part I & II of Sacks's book (pp.3-173) and reading the text of "Genesis." All are welcome to join the conversation.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Home From Our Exile

Oosterhuis/Huijbers

REFRAIN:

Home from our ex-ile! God, make our dream come true: be here a-mong us!

1

2 to Verses

be here a-mong us!

- 1) We shall be singing, laughing and reveling:
let all the world say: "Their God does wonders!"
Yes, you do wonders. God here among us, be then our gladness!
- 2) Then lead us home, bring us to life,
just as the rivers, deep in the desert,
flow once again as the new rain appears.

Second Reading

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

While Paul was in prison, he begged Philemon to receive back the runaway slave, Onesimus, as a beloved brother and partner in Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

F. O'Carroll

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

The Word of the Lord lasts forever.

What is the word that is living?

It is brought to us through God's Son: Jesus Christ.

Gospel

Luke 14:25-33

Jesus taught his followers the hard lesson of the cross: good accounting, careful planning, anticipating changes, decision making, and finishing the job.

MinistriesSingers and Instrumentalists:

The music ministry is open to everyone in the community. No auditions! Just a smiling face and the desire to serve God through musical prayer. If you sing, play guitar, flute, violin, cello, percussion, or piano and are interested in an experience of God through artistry, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Volunteer Greeters Needed at 4:30pm Mass:

The summer months offer a challenge in making sure our liturgies continue to provide a welcoming and vibrant space for our community and visitors. Several volunteers have graduated, moved or are away for the summer. We need your help. You are invited to serve the Catholic Community as a 4:30pm Mass Greeter. Greeters arrive 30 minutes prior to Mass to set up and welcome people. They stay 20 minutes after Mass to take a collection, check the sanctuary, and lock up. Training takes 45 minutes and is typically scheduled before one of the Sunday Masses. Based on the current number of volunteers, Greeters serve about once every 3 weeks (less frequently if there are more of us). Please email Teresa at tpleins@stanford.edu.

Altar Servers:

There is a need for several altar servers for the 4:30 Mass. We would especially encourage students to participate in this interactive ministry. Training is provided. You are scheduled approximately every 3 weeks. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.
