Rejoice with Me

SEPTEMBER 15, 2013

fr Aelred reflects on how our own little golden calves prevent us from rejoicing in the feast of the Lamb.

I am not one of nature's ascetics. For me the Golden Calf and the Fatted Calf are one. There is nothing quite like a nice bit of Vitello Milanese, 'with chips', soaked in red wine vinegar.

It is one of my fondest memories of a year spent in a Roman Seminary, forty years ago. This, I hasten to add, was the Scottish one, which I left after a retreat given by an Irish Dominican.

Moses stands in the breach before God on behalf of his headstrong people who have committed idolatry, seeking consolation and security in something tangible and visible, a substitute for the real and living God. Pope Francis has spoken often of such temptations in our own time. He reminds us of the real solution to be found in the mercy of Jesus.

St Paul says: 'Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I myself am the greatest of them; and if mercy has been shown to me, it is because Jesus Christ meant to make me the greatest evidence of his inexhaustible patience for all the other people who would later have to trust in him to come to eternal life.'

He is the 'Fatted Calf', killed for the feast of the very Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

The lost sheep and the lost coin lead on to the lost son. If the lost son has been dead and then brought back to life, then we are all called to join in the celebration. However the calling is much more persuasive and urgent when we realise that we too need bringing back to life from death: the death of alienation, bitterness, negation, hatred of self, others and God. Only the calf, who has himself undergone death to defeat it, as one like us in all things but sin, can be our means of liberation and resurrection to new life. If like the elder son, we choose to stand outside the feast of the fatted calf, we then refuse the offer of resurrection to new life from death.

The feast we are invited to is the Father's heavenly banquet, where Jesus is the 'Fatted Calf, of the parable, now in reality the lamb of sacrifice offered for the sins of humanity, once and for all, at the Last Supper and on the Cross of Calvary.

Like the younger son, we need to come to our senses, and realise that we are dying of hunger for the food of heaven, Jesus himself. He is the one who, as St Paul tells us, gives us strength and calls us into his service regardless of our past and present sins.

The mercy enables us to show the mercy and compassion of our God to others. 'Rejoice with me' is the invitation to join in the feast.

It is hard for the elder brother, (or sister) to join in this rejoicing: 'All those years I have worked for you and never once disobeyed your orders.' Is this the real relationship of a Father to his loving Father? The Father reminds the elder son that 'you are with me always, and all I have is yours. The life of relationship with the Father is a gift shared, not to be jealously hoarded.

The resentment of the elder brother in the parable mirrors the resentment and bitterness of those who have not quite taken the risks of the more reckless among us. Often a truer and deeper repentance comes from those who have sinned the most. Perhaps those of us who have not openly rebelled, have still our own little 'golden calves'.

The repentant younger brother upsets our settled way of living. The rejoicing and feasting is beyond my control. It is mine, in relationship with the Father, and with all the others he has invited to the feast, not just our friends.

God's mercy is offered freely, on his terms not mine.

Jesus is the mercy and compassion of God, not a Golden Calf, but a Fatted Calf, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

fr Aelred Connelly is a member of the house of St Columba's parish, Glasgow, and is chaplain to a Young Offenders' Institution.

Are You New? Welcome to CC@S!

Thank you for stopping by! Whether you're just visiting us or are looking for a new parish home, are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church or are returning to the practice of your Catholic faith, we're happy you're here!

We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

Religious Education Registration:

Registration for our religious education program for children (ages 3-12) will be held following both the 10:30 and 4:30 Masses on September 29. A junior high level class will be added this year, with the possibility of confirmation included. Programs are open to the children of current students, faculty/staff families, and registered, active parishioners. For more information, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Infant Baptisms:

Our next celebration of baptism is Nov. 3 during the 4:30 Mass in Memorial Church. There is a required preparation course for parents on Oct. 26, 10-11:30 a.m. Baptisms are celebrated for all families of current students, faculty, staff, postdocs, and registered community members. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Assistants Needed for Children's Sunday Morning Religious Ed Program:

Many of the community's children take part in a Montessori-based religious education program on Sunday mornings. The children range in age from 3-13. Several volunteer assistants are needed to help the full-time catechists as the children work with various materials (books of the Bible, parables, prayer corner, learning the parts of the Mass, etc). Sessions run 8:45-10:20am, being in early October, and break during academic breaks. This is an excellent ministry if you like children and enjoy watching them learn about God and their faith. For info, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Gently used Kindles & Nooks Needed for Children's Program:

The children's religious education program is in need of several used e-readers to load materials on for our older children. If you have recently upgraded and have an older version sitting around taking up space, we could certainly put it to good use! Tax info available for your donation. Please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Small Faith Group for the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius:

Thursday at 7:30pm for the group session and 10-20 minutes individual daily prayer. Join us our small faith group to practice St. Ignatius spiritual exercise. The book, The Ignatian Adventure by Kevin O'Brien, SJ, is used as a guideline. If you are interested, contact Eun-Soo at eschoi@stanford.edu.

New Choir Members:

Come be involved in one of the "front and center" ministries! The music ministries at all Masses are open for new singers. A special need is women for the 4:30 Mass. Rehearsal is on Wednesday night during the academic term. No auditions required, training and audio files available for most music. We would love to have you involved. For more info, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu.

Health Care Providers:

Consider volunteering at Samaritan House Free Clinic in Redwood City. Samaritan House provides free medical and dental services to low-income and uninsured adults in San Mateo County. You can volunteer as little as four hours a month directly at the clinic or see patients in your own office. Patients would receive free blood work and x-rays as well as most medications free of charge. For more information contact: Jason Wong, M.D. (650) 839-1447 jason@samaritanhouse.com or Melissa Moss (650) 523-0819 mmoss@samaritanhouse.com

"Engaging the Heart" Vallombrosa Catholic Marriage Preparation:

October 26, 2013, 9am to 4pm

Catholic marriage preparation involves several steps, one of which is the Pre-Cana Program. This program takes several forms, and each parish decides what is required: an Engaged Encounter Weekend, or a one-day session which meets the diocesan requirements. Vallombrosa staff have worked with the Archdiocese of San Francisco and the Diocese of San Jose to create a one-day Pre-Cana Program which will include presentations/workshops by Catholic professionals on various aspects of married life, such as Intimacy, Communication, Spirituality, Role Expectations, and Sexuality.

In each workshop there will be time for a couple to work together on issues they wish to discuss. This one day Pre-Cana Session will meet on a Saturday every other month.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteering in the Hospital Chaplaincy:

Would you be interested in bringing Holy Communion to Catholic patients in the Stanford Hospital several times a month, on the days of your choice? Take advantage of the forthcoming training for Hospital Chaplaincy volunteers. Our Community actively supports this program. Many volunteers from CC@S, students as well as permanent members, already participate in this ministry, and Fr. Nathan and Fr. Xavier are on call for emergency spiritual care needs of the patients several times a month. The training for new volunteers, organized by the Stanford Hospital, will be held on Saturday, October 19, from 9 am to 5 pm. One-year commitment is expected (or one-school-year if you are a student). To learn more about this ministry, and to get info on how to sign up, please write to CC@S member, Harv.Galic@gmail.com

St. Anthony Padua's Dining Room:

The CCAS is committed to serving the needy, elderly and homeless at St. Anthony's Soup Kitchen in Menlo Park. If you are interested in volunteering on Saturday, Sept. 28 or Oct. 5 from 8:30 - 1pm or a subset thereof, please contact gary.glover@stanford.edu to discuss and/or have a volunteer position reserved for you. The CCAS serves every first and fourth Saturday of the month, so plan your schedules in advance, and let Gary know at least by the Monday before. In the gospel today the Pharisees and scribes reviled Jesus for eating with "tax collectors and sinners"; but like Jesus, we can help feed our needy.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God,
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

Precious Lord, take my hand,
 Bring Thy child home at last,
 Where the strife and the pain all are past;
 I have dreamed a great dream
 That Thy love shall rule our land:
 Precious Lord, precious Lord, take my hand.

Precious Lord, take my hand,
 Take Thy child unto Thee,
 With my dream of a world that is free.
 For that day when all flesh
 Joins the glory Thou hast planned,
 Precious Lord, precious Lord, take my hand.
