Dear New Stanford Students:

Welcome to Stanford! We, the Catholic Community at Stanford, are glad you're here. We've been preparing for your arrival and will do our best to help you feel at home. You've been through orientations to help you navigate your way around campus. Catholic life at Stanford may resemble what you've been accustomed to in other places; in some ways it will be different. Here are a few things it may help you to know.

Some of you have Spanish as your first language. We have Mass in Spanish once a month. The first will be on Sunday, October 16, at 3pm in Memorial Church. We also have cards with the Order of the Mass printed in English. Soon you'll know the responses of the Mass in English; this card can help in the meantime. Just ask for one.

You'll hear about activities for our Young Adults. Those are persons living and working in the area but who are not current Stanford students. We have separate leadership teams and activities for graduate and undergraduate students. There are retreats, socials service projects and classes designed for you.

One major difference between the Catholic Community at Stanford and most Catholic communities you may have experienced is that, for the most part, we don't own our own buildings. Most staff offices are located on the 3rd floor of Old Union in the CIRCLE, an interfaith setting. Many of our meetings take place there or at the Graduate Community Center, residence halls or other campus venues. We do own a cluster of cottages on Stanford Avenue which we call "the annex." Some graduate dinners are held there.

Many Catholics new to Stanford assume that Memorial Church, where we hold our 4:30pm and 10:00pm Masses, is a Catholic church. It is not. We are a chaplaincy to a non-Catholic institution, analogous to the church's chaplaincies to non-Catholic hospitals, prisons or military bases.

We are given use of Memorial Church, which we share with other faith groups. Many concerts and lectures take place in Memorial Church, too. We have our 10:30 am Mass in the Oak Room of Tresidder Student Union because the church is not available to us on Sunday morning.

There are no kneeling benches in these spaces; consequently the assembly stands during the Eucharistic prayer. Some initially find this irreverent. It needn't be, for reverence is an attitude of heart. As your pastor, and presider at the eucharist, I'd prefer that you stand with the rest of the assembly. If, however, you find that this disturbs your prayer, then kneel.

There is no tabernacle in Memorial Church so the Blessed Sacrament is not reserved there. We do have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament each Tuesday night from 9 to 10:30pm in the Sanctuary on the 3rd floor of Old Union. There are no confessional booths, but we have twice weekly scheduled confessions, Advent and Lenten reconciliation services, and both priests hear confessions by appointment and on retreats. Staff members are regularly called upon for counseling. You'll find our contact information on the cover of the bulletin.

Keep in mind Jesus' promise to be with us always and everywhere. You'll find the Spirit of God all over Stanford, and whether you're conscious of it or not, in every breath you take here. The same God who loved you wherever you've come from is loving you faithfully here. Those of us who got here before you will do all we can to help make that obvious. Again... welcome to Stanford.

Love,

Father Nathan Castle, OP
Pastor, Catholic Community at Stanford

Liturgical Ministry:

Consider joining one of the liturgical ministries as a way of deepening your spirituality and giving back to your church community. Openings are available for lectors, greeters, altar servers, communion ministers, and singers and instrumentalists for the choir. Training is available. Time commitment varies, but usually does not involve an every week commitment. Contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu

Religious Education for Children for 2011-2012:

Our community offers a wonderful religious education program for children ages 3-13. The program is called the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a Montessori-based learning environment where children are given both instruction and the opportunity to explore their own faith with many "hands-on" materials. Included in these sessions is preparation for first reconciliation and first communion. Sessions meet on Sunday mornings, 9:15-10:20. We will take a break over the summer and begin again in the early Fall. If you are not currently in the program and would like to consider this in the fall, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu. Your input will help in our planning for next year.

Registration for Religious Education for Children:

There will be an open house and registration following the 10:30 Mass (Tresidder Union Oak Room) and 4:30 Mass (Memorial Church) today, Sunday, Sept. 25. The first parent meeting will be Sunday, Oct. 2, 9:00am in the Old Union Building. This session is required in order to have your children enrolled. Children's sessions begin Sunday, Oct. 9.

Desserts Needed For October 9:

Our annual welcome barbecue will take place in the Old Union Courtyard at 5:45pm after the Mass of the Holy Spirit on October 9. While the "main event" is being catered, we would appreciate it if those in the Permanent Community who are able could contribute a dessert for the event. It is something we have often done in the past, and it is really fun to see what everybody brings! If you are willing to bring a dessert just contact Nancy Greenfield at ngreenfield875@gmail.com. Thanks in advance for your generosity.

Monthly Discernment Group:

for single, Catholic women 18-40 (from 10am-2pm). Meet monthly with the MSJ Dominican Sisters for Group discussion & reflection on your vocation, and Eucharist & Lunch with the Sisters, at our Motherhouse, 43326 Mission Blvd. (entrance on Mission Tierra Pl), Fremont, CA 94539 RSVP or questions at: vocations@msjdominicans.org

Misa en español:

On the second Sunday of each month we have a Mass in Spanish, at 3:00pm in Memorial Church. The next Mass will be on October 16th. We welcome you to come worship with us. We are also in need of Liturgical Ministers, Readers, and in particular singers and musicians. If you would like to help in this ministry please contact Guillermo: gcolombetti@yahoo.com. ¡¡¡Bienvenidos!!!

Fundraiser Breakfast for St. Anthony's Soup Kitchen:

Tuesday, October 11, 2011, 8:30 – 9:30am at the Homer Center, Sacred Heart Schools, 150 Valparaiso Avenue, Atherton. Please join us and invite your friends to attend a breakfast to learn more about St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room. The breakfast is underwritten by a local business so there is no cost to attend. St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park has been serving hot lunches to the homeless, working and nonworking low-income families, and elderly since 1974. The dining room prepares an average of 600 meals a day, six days a week, and provides meals for two local shelters. In addition, free clothing is available twice a week. All of this is made possible with the help of over 160 dedicated volunteers. Come join us and listen to our story. You will be inspired by what you hear and learn. We promise that it will only last one hour and will be a wonderful way to start your day. For more information, contact: Sue Merrill (650)342-1312 suemerrill@hotmail.com

Volunteers needed at St. Anthony's Soup Kitchen:

The Catholic Community at Stanford is committed to serving the needy, elderly and homeless at St. Anthony's Soup Kitchen in Menlo Park.

If you are interested in volunteering on Saturday, October 1st from 8:30 until 1:00pm, please contact Michael Bova at mpbova2001@yahoo.com to have a volunteer position reserved for you. In general, the CCAS has the first and fourth Saturdays of the month reserved for us at St. Anthony's. So plan your schedules in advance and please join us in helping those in need.

GRADS

Grad Catholic Welcome Dinner:

Monday, Sept. 26, 6:30-8:30pm, GCC Havana Room
Come join us as we kick off the 2011-2012 academic year with a hearty meal and fellowship. We'll be welcoming both new students and returning grads, as well as providing information about this year's program, including discussion groups, Bible studies, small groups, retreats, dinners, socials, and more. Contact april.tessarzik@gmail.com with questions.

Grad Catholic Welcome Dinner: Volunteers Needed!

Monday, Sept. 26, GCC Havana Room
Please help welcome new members to our community by volunteering to set up, clean up, or bring a dessert to our annual Welcome Dinner. Sign up to help by filling out our form attinyurl.com/gradwelcome. Contact april.tessarzik@gmail.com with questions.

Women's Faith Sharing/Prayer Group:

A couple of members from our community are hoping to start a women's Faith Sharing group. They are inviting grad students or spouses of grad students to see if there is enough interest to start a regular meeting. If you are interested in being part of this new group and sharing your faith journey with others, please email Lourdes at lalonso@stanford.edu. She will get you in touch with the group leaders.

Gathering Be Thou My Vision (Slane)

Be thou my vi - sion, O Lord of my heart;
Rich - es I heed not, nor man's emp - ty praise,
High King of heav - en, my vic - to - ry won,

Nought be all else to me save that thou art.
Thou mine in - her - it - ance, now and al - ways,
May I reach heav'n's joys, O bright heav - en's Sun!

Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Thou and thou on - ly, first in my heart,
Heart of my own heart, what - ev - er be - fall,

Wak - ing or sleep - ing, thy pres - ence my light.
High King of heav - en, my treas - ure thou art.
Still be my vi - sion, O Rul - er of all.

God! Glo - ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo - ple on earth!

First Reading Ezekiel 18:25-28

The Lord spoke through Ezekiel, "Hear now, house of Israel: If a person turns away from evil and does what is right and just, that person shall surely live and shall not die."

Psalm 25 Hold My In Life (Bernard Huijbers)

Hold me in life for you are my safe - ty,

al - ways my eyes are look - ing for you.

Verses
1. Be - cause you are just who you are,
2. Are you the one who is to come,
3. You gave your Word to this, our world:

don't pass me by, but show me your mer - cy;
or must we wait and fol - low some oth - er?
you are my song, the God of my glad - ness;

I will wait for you all my life.
Lord, my God, I am cer - tain of you.
my de - sire goes out to you.

Second Reading Philippians 2:1-11

Paul quoted an ancient hymn, "Though Christ was in the form of God, he did not consider equality with God something to be held tightly. He emptied himself, became a slave and obediently accepted death on a cross. So God exalted him and gave him a name above every other name."

Gospel Acclamation Mass From Age to Age (De Silva)

Pax Christi Northern California:

will be hosting a major event on Saturday October 22nd. The title is "Profits or Prophets, Toward an Economy for Peace." The Keynote Speaker will be Bishop Thomas Gumbleton. The goal is to help attendees to understand how our economic system is now driven for the most part without any obligation to direct itself to moral values, respecting the dignity of all, and taking care of those in need. And it will address the faith issues of a just, moral economy, and how peacemakers can work to restore such an economy. See Flyer at <http://cl.exct.net>

Announcing Faculty Jobs at Notre Dame:

As a research university, Notre Dame fosters creative inquiry and scholarship while engaging and enlightening students' minds. It seeks to educate graduate students to exercise leadership in the academy and the professions. Because of Notre Dame's distinctive Catholic identity and mission, it values all intellectual inquiry as the pursuit not just of knowledge but of truth. The University, therefore, offers its undergraduates an education that can challenge and mature their hearts and spirits as well as their minds and provides all its graduate students with a community that can similarly advance their full humanity. Notre Dame invites applicants supportive of and dedicated to enhancing its mission as a Catholic research university, particularly women, members of historically underrepresented groups, and others who will enhance the diversity of its faculty. To see a listing of open positions, please visit facultyjobs.nd.edu. Notre Dame is one of the few research universities that searches for faculty at every level by inviting applications from suitable candidates. This requires that we identify prospective applicants. If your academic discipline is represented at Notre Dame and we are not currently hiring in your field or you are not yet on the job market, we still want to hear about you and your work. You can learn more about hiring for mission at Notre Dame at identifyyourself.nd.edu. Follow this link and tell us about your scholarship so that we will be able to identify you when there is a faculty opening in your field.

Day Of Prayer For Mental Illness Recovery And Understanding

Tuesday, Oct. 4, of Mental Illness Awareness Week. The National Day of Prayer for Mental Illness Recovery and Understanding has been designated as the Tuesday of Mental Illness Awareness Week, which is the first full week in October. This year, the date is Oct. 4, 2011. Mental illness networks and faith leaders are urged to work together so that they may recognize and prepare for this day in a way that works best for each faith community. The prayers and actions of both faith communities and secular organizations (e.g. the National Alliance on Mental Illness, National Mental Health Association, Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance, Obsessive-Compulsive Foundation, Anxiety Disorders Association of America, etc.) are needed to restore mental wellness in America. By seeking God's guidance we can recommit ourselves to replacing misinformation, blame, fear and prejudice with truth and love in order to offer hope to all who are touched by mental illness.
