ENCOUNTER CHRIST

“Faith is born from the encounter with Jesus. A personal encounter, which has touched my heart and given direction and new meaning to my existence.”
(Pope Francis.)

Jesus entrusted us all with the same mission he himself had: to make disciples of all nations. This year, Catholic Community at Stanford (CC@S) is renewing its efforts in this regard, intentionally focusing on how we can be better disciples ourselves and then go out and make disciples of those in, and around, Stanford. We’re calling it Encounter Christ and we’re starting small – like Jesus did – by beginning with the undergrads. Six of our undergrads and the CC@S staff were trained this summer in how to grow disciples in an intentional and non-threatening, non-intrusive and non-preachy way. Our efforts are geared to making disciples the way Jesus did: through trusting relationships. The students will be forming small groups where they can discuss their experiences of Jesus, their joys and their questions. They will be meeting other students where they are spiritually, but also, where they are physically: in the dorms. Why? The point is to step outside our usual circle of friends and go to those who, while Catholic, may not be very involved in their faith, to those who may have lost interest in the church, and to those who are not Catholic but who might be interested in getting to know Jesus better. The students will go where people can actually see and meet them; in this way they have the chance to start a relationship with them and to walk with them on their spiritual journey.

We are committed to expanding Encounter Christ to the rest of the CC@S community, beginning next year. Our goal is to have all of our community engaged in making disciples in the same way: spending time with others, loving them, teaching them Jesus’ teachings, showing them through demonstration of our own lives the joy that following Jesus can bring. As Pope John Paul II said years ago: “It is not therefore a matter of inventing a ‘new programme.’ The programme already exists: it is the plan found in the Gospel.”

To learn more about Encounter Christ, Undergrads can contact Fr. Emmanuel Taylor (e4op@stanford.edu, 415-857-1216). All other community members can contact Fr. Xavier (650 291-4590, xavierop@stanford.edu)

Are You New? Welcome to CC@S!

Thank you for stopping by! Whether you're just visiting us or are looking for a new parish home, are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church or are returning to the practice of your Catholic faith, we're happy you're here!

We are both parish and campus ministry serving Stanford students, faculty, and staff as well as the many non-students who have chosen to make CC@S their home. We are served by the Dominican Order, and are called to share the love of Christ through study, prayer, community, and service. We want to develop and form well-educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders who live out the love of Christ.

National Medals of the Arts:

On September 3, 2015, President Obama presented National Medals of the arts in conjunction with the National Humanities Medals at the East Room of the White House. This is the highest award given to artists and art patrons by the federal government. One of the recipients was our own Toby Wolff! The award, read by the President, awarded the medal to: Tobias Wolff for his contributions as an author and an educator. His raw works of fiction examine themes of American identity and individual morality. With wit and compassion, Mr. Wolff's work reflects the truths of our human experience. Congratulations, Toby! **

Undergrads

Encounter Christ:

Sign up at Sunday Mass, today, September 27.

This year the Catholic Community at Stanford is inviting others to encounter Jesus through trusting relationships. We are doing this because knowing Jesus and walking with him transforms our lives into one of joy. Once we experience this joy, we will want to share it with others: a joy shared is twice a joy!

"Morte D'Urban" is generally considered his masterpiece, and it won the National Book Award in 1963. It is a comedy, often hilarious, and at the same time a moving and compassionate exploration of American mores and the religious life. Come and join what promises to be a lively conversation.

Esto Les Digo

Kinley Lange

Esto les digo, si dos de ustedes se ponen de acuerdo aquí en la tierra para pedir algo en oración, mi padre que está en el cielo se lo dará, porque donde dos o tres se reúnen en mi nombre allí estoy yo, en medio de ellos.

This I tell you, if two of you agree here on earth to ask in prayer, my father who is in heaven shall grant it, because where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am, in their midst.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God, the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.
