building community

a new way of life ENCOUNTER CHRIST

“Faith is born from the encounter with Jesus. A personal encounter, which has touched my heart and given direction and new meaning to my existence.”
(Pope Francis.)

Jesus entrusted us all with the same mission he himself had: to make disciples of all nations. This year, Catholic Community at Stanford (CC@S) is renewing its efforts in this regard, intentionally focusing on how we can be better disciples ourselves and then go out and make disciples of those in, and around, Stanford. We’re calling it Encounter Christ and we’re starting small – like Jesus did – by beginning with the undergrads. Six of our undergrads and the CC@S staff were trained this summer in how to grow disciples in an intentional and non-threatening, non-intrusive and non-preachy way. Our efforts are geared to making disciples the way Jesus did: through trusting relationships. The students will be forming small groups where they can discuss their experiences of Jesus, their joys and their questions. They will be meeting other students where they are spiritually, but also, where they are physically: in the dorms. Why? The point is to step outside our usual circle of friends and go to those who, while Catholic, may not be very involved in their faith, to those who may have lost interest in the church, and to those who are not Catholic but who might be interested in getting to know Jesus better. The students will go where people can actually see and meet them; in this way they have the chance to start a relationship with them and to walk with them on their spiritual journey.

We are committed to expanding Encounter Christ to the rest of the CC@S community, beginning next year. Our goal is to have all of our community engaged in making disciples in the same way: spending time with others, loving them, teaching them Jesus’ teachings, showing them through demonstration of our own lives the joy that following Jesus can bring. As Pope John Paul II said years ago: “It is not therefore a matter of inventing a ‘new programme.’ The programme already exists: it is the plan found in the Gospel.”

To learn more about Encounter Christ, Undergrads can contact Fr. Emmanuel Taylor (e4op@stanford.edu, 415-857-1216). All other community members can contact Fr. Xavier (650 291-4590, xavierop@stanford.edu)

Powers was a contemporary of Flannery O'Connor and one of the best and most admired American Catholic fiction writers of the midcentury. "Morte D'Urban" is generally considered his masterpiece, and it won the National Book Award in 1963. It is a comedy, often hilarious, and at the same time a moving and compassionate exploration of American mores and the religious life. Come and join what promises to be a lively conversation.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Newman Nights Lecture:
Saint? Oppressor? St. Junipero
Serra in his historical context

Junipero Serra's Approach to the Native Peoples of the Californias. Old Union (3rd floor), CIRCLE Common Room. Tuesday, the 13th of October, 2015.

The canonization of Junipero Serra has raised a thorny issue: how do you assess a man? Was he a Catholic saint or a Spanish oppressor? Explore the history in a lecture by Dr. Rose Marie Beebe and Dr. Robert Senkewicz.

Dr. Rose Marie Beebe is Professor of Spanish Literature, and Dr. Robert Senkewicz is Professor of History, both at Santa Clara University. They have collaborated on a number of books on the history of Spanish and Mexican California. Their latest volume is Junipero Serra: California, Indians, and the Transformation of a Missionary (University of Oklahoma Press, 2015). They have received numerous teaching and scholarship awards at Santa Clara, as well as awards from The Bancroft Library, the Historical Society of Southern California, the California Mission Studies Association, and the California Council for the Promotion of History.

Communion

Isaiah 61

M Maher

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me
 Because the Lord has anointed me;
 He has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor,
 To heal the broken-hearted.
 To proclaim liberty to the captives
 And release to the prisoners,
 To announce a year of favor from the Lord
 And a day of vindication by our God.

So will the Lord God make justice and praise,
 So will the Lord God make justice and praise
 Spring up before the nations.

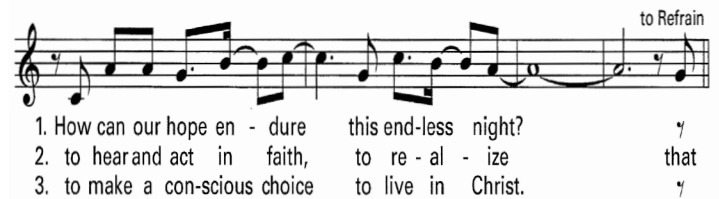

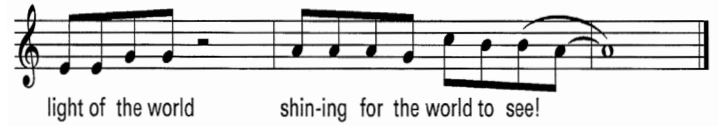

I rejoice heartily in the Lord.
 In my God is the joy of my soul;
 For he has clothed me with a robe of salvation,
 And wrapped me in a mantle of justice,
 Like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem,
 Like a bride bedecked with her jewels.
 As the earth springs forth its plants
 And a garden makes its growth spring up.

So will the Lord God make justice and praise,
 So will the Lord God make justice and praise
 Spring up before the nations.
