building community

a way of life

Sunday, November 1, 2015

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. Most of us are aware that every day of the year is Feast Day for some saints. In fact, and this is of great consequence to our understanding, according to the Catholic Encyclopedia "The Solemnity of All Saints is when the Church honors all saints, known and unknown."

Those who have Feast Days are "known." Yet, each of us has known "saints" in our lives who fall into the category of "unknown." It may have been a parent or a sibling or a friend or a co-worker or a neighbor or a member of our parish or merely someone with whom we came in contact at some point in time. The crux is that on this day we need to pray and to honor those saints who have been an important part of our life in some way.

Indeed this is a day which should remind us that we, too, are called to sainthood. Not that we aspire to be honored publicly by the Pope or by the Church, but we do need to recognize that each of us is called to holiness. It is those "unknown" saints who provide examples of how to live and love and treat others, how to be good stewards. May we pray for them and may we seek to be like them in our own lives!

New Sermon Series: Do We Really "Get" Jesus?

The readings for the next three Sundays (the last three of the liturgical year) focus on some difficult topics, all relating to the core message of Jesus. Because they are so counter cultural and sometimes hard to understand, we often gloss over them, but they contain the essential themes running through Jesus' life. Join us for this Sermon Series, November 8, 15 and 22.

Interested in Exploring the Catholic Faith?

For those thinking about becoming Catholic, for Catholics who haven't been confirmed and for fellow travelers and explorers! RCIA (Rite for the Christian Initiation of Adults) Tuesdays at 7:15pm on the 3rd Floor of Old Union.

Instead of being just a church that welcomes and receives by keeping the doors open, let us try also to be a church that finds new roads, that is able to step outside itself and go to those who do not attend Mass, to those who have quit or are indifferent.

Offertory

Angel Band

J. Haskell

My latest sun is sinking fast,
My race is nearly run;
My strongest trials now are past,
My triumph is begun.

I know I'm near the holy ranks
Of friends and kindred dear;
I brush the dew on Jordan's bank,
The crossing must be near.

O come, angel band,
Come and around me stand;
O bear me away on your snowy wings,
To my immortal home.
O bear me away on your snowy wings,
To my immortal home.

I've almost gained my heav'nly home;
My spirit loudly sings;
The holy ones, behold they come!
I hear the noise of wings.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Fifty Years of Catholic-Jewish Relations: The Gains and the Challenges. John T. Pawlikowski Professor of Social Ethics & Director of Catholic-Jewish Studies Program at Catholic Theological Union.

November 5, 2015,

Thursday, 5:00 pm

Kehillah Hall - Ziff Center at the Koret Pavilion - Hillel at Stanford.

Free and open to the public.

The fifty years since the passage of Vatican II statement on interreligious relations NOSTRA AETATE the church's perception of its relationship with Judaism and the Jewish People has undergone a radical transformation. Christianity has come to recognize that its links with the Jewish tradition are indispensable for its own self-understanding. While not all points of tensions have been removed the relationship is now viewed through a fundamentally positive lens exactly opposite to the fundamentally negative lens that prevailed for centuries. The gains of the last half century will be highlighted and the remaining challenges will be put on the table.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Religious Studies and Stanford Humanities Center.
