a way of life

Sunday, November 8, 2015

The Gospel from Mark contains one of the most repeated and utilized accounts about what it means to practice stewardship, as well as the requirements that need to be met in order to be a good steward. It is the story of the poor widow who placed “two small coins worth a few cents” into the offering basket. Although we often call this the narrative of the “Widow’s Mite,” we should keep in mind that a “mite” was a medieval English coin, and that term was never used until the Bible was rewritten during the Reformation — “Mite” was first used in the King James version of the Bible.

However, the significance of the story is not what we might call the coins; it is what Jesus was trying to tell us by sharing what happened. The Lord parallels an oft-repeated stewardship saying, “Not equal giving, but equal sacrifice.” It is not the size of our gifts of gratitude to God that matter; it is the idea that each of us as Catholics and Christians makes an equal sacrifice in our efforts to be good stewards.

The Lord tells us, “For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.” Although He does not say it specifically, what Jesus is declaring to us is, “She trusts Me.” Do we? Do our sacrifices reflect that trust?

new announcements

Special Collection For Disasters Relief:

Understanding the donor fatigue that you may experience with multiple solicitations for the good causes that come our way, the bishop is authorizing one collection, proceeds to be forwarded from the Chancery to Catholic Relief Services for victims of Hurricane Patricia, Typhoon Koppu (Lando), and the earthquake in Afghanistan/Pakistan. We will be sending a percentage of this Sunday's collection to CRS for this cause. Please be generous. Further donations can be made to Catholic Relief Services through crs.org

4:30 Choir Looking For Basses:

If you sing bass, we need you! Singing with the choir gives you an up-close way of celebrating Mass with a group of new friends. Upcoming special liturgies include the Early Holiday Liturgy in December and the Liturgical Arts Performance Lamentations: Images of War and Protest in February. Rehearsals are Wednesday nights, 8-10:00pm in Old Union. No auditions! For info contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu. (other voices are also welcome to join)

Save the Date for Our Early Holiday Liturgy:

Saturday evening, Dec. 5, 11:00pm, we hold our Early Holiday Liturgy in Memorial Church. Think Midnight Mass, just before heading into finals week! Candle procession through the darkened church, Advent readings, orchestra and choir with Brass Act ensemble to lead us in Christmas caroling and then on to hot chocolate! Everyone is invited to celebrate the Advent/Christmas season together with this festive Holiday Mass. If you are interested in singing or playing in the orchestra, contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu

New Sermon Series: Do We Really “Get” Jesus?

The readings for the next three Sundays (the last three of the liturgical year) focus on some difficult topics, all relating to the core message of Jesus. Because they are so counter cultural and sometimes hard to understand, we often gloss over them, but they contain the essential themes running through Jesus’ life. Join us for this Sermon Series, November 8, 15 and 22.

Reading Group:

We will meet tomorrow, Monday, November 9th at 7:30pm at the Gelpi's house on campus (870 Tolman Drive) to discuss J. F. POWERS's novel "MORTE D'URBAN." Powers was a contemporary of Flannery O'Connor and one of the best and most admired American Catholic fiction writers of the midcentury. "Morte D'Urban" is generally considered his masterpiece, and it won the National Book Award in 1963. It is a comedy, often hilarious, and at the same time a moving and compassionate exploration of American mores and the religious life. Come and join what promises to be a lively conversation.

Grads

Catholicism 101:

Grad Students are invited to Catholicism 101, a weekly dinner and discussion covering Catholic topics. Join us on Thursdays at 7pm in the Nairobi room at the Graduate Community Center.

Both grad and undergrad are welcome. Contact James at jcppaps@stanford.edu for more info.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God, the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

Care For Me

Hervé Kieffel

Care for me, God, take care of me
I have nowhere else to hide;
Shadow me with your wings
Until all danger passes.

Extend to me your love that never fails
for I find myself among lions who crave for human flesh,
their teeth like spears and arrows.

They rigged a net, a trap to bring me down,
but I will not fear, O Lord, to you I'll sing my praise:
awake my soul to song.

I call to the most high, to God, my hope and my salvation:
send help to free me, free me from all fear.

Awake my harp and lyre so I can wake the dawn!
I lift up my voice in praise, for your love reaches heaven's edge,
your unfailing love the skies!

Recessional

I Will Not Die

T. Conry

1., 5. I will not die be - fore I've lived to see that land;
2. I will not rest un - til your dawn is in my eyes;
3. And I will breathe in that might - y wind of jus - tice;
4. You will stand up for the poor and the need - y;

firm as the earth,                      your own prom-ise.
 that frag - ile light,                    new like morn-ing.
 I'll know my name                      and rise up sing-ing.
 you'll break the chains                  that bind your peo - ple.

I'll not let go un-til I've held it in my hand;
 I will not sleep be-fore I've wak - ened to that sun - rise;
 And I will call un-til my words bring on the thun-der;
 For you are home for the lost            and the des - p'rate;

that word of hope,                      and gen - tle laugh - ter.
 and all the world                      knows your glo - ry.
 washed in that rain,                    then I'll know you.
 your strong right hand                  goes be - fore us.

Refrain

For your right hand has de - liv-ered us from death;

You have re - gard - ed our            tears,

you who are good - ness and            grace.
