Catholic Community at Stanford
Catholic Community Staff

Catholic Community at Stanford
At its heart, the Eucharist is a sacrament of communion, bringing us closer to God and to our brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ. If we live the fruits of the Eucharist in our daily lives, we will fill our families and our communities with the life-giving qualities that the Liturgy brings: hospitality, concern for the poor and vulnerable, self-offering, and thanksgiving.

An ancient saying in the Church reads “lex orandi, lex credendi,” meaning that the law of prayer is the law of faith. More loosely: as we pray, so we believe. To that we might add lex vivendi, meaning that as we pray, so we believe, and so we live. In the third edition of the Roman Missal, the bishops and translators have taken great care to ensure that the prayers accurately and fully reflect the mysteries of our faith. Thus, the words that we pray in each liturgical celebration will help to form and strengthen our understanding of the faith.

However, if the effects of the Liturgy stop at the doors of the church, we have not made our prayer and our faith part of our law of living. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches that the Eucharist helps us to grow in union with Christ, avoid sin, increase in charity, strengthen communion with our brothers and sisters, and recognize Christ in the poorest and most vulnerable members of society (see CCC, nos. 1391-1397). But what does that mean in daily life?

Living a Life Of Prayer

Our prayer lives should not be limited to a single hour on Sunday mornings. In fact, the richer our prayer lives are throughout the week, the more fully we will be able to enter into the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist. Here are some ways to make your daily life more prayerful:

* Try attending daily Mass at least once a week. Your parish may have an early morning Mass, or a church near your job may offer a lunchtime Mass.

* Stop in a church before or after work or on your lunch hour for fifteen minutes of quiet prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

* Make it a practice to say grace before every meal—even if you are eating in the car.

* Schedule time for family prayer at least once a week. This prayer can be as simple as saying the Our Father or a decade of the Rosary together.

* Take time during the week to read or listen to the readings for the upcoming Sunday. The readings are available online (in print and audio) at www.usccb.org/nab.

* Begin your day with a brief prayer of thanksgiving to God, offering your day to him.

* End your day with an examination of conscience, looking at your successes and failures in what you have done or what you have failed to do. If you are aware of serious sin, receive the Sacrament of Penance before you receive Holy Communion again.

Living A Life Of Loving Service

Celebrating the eucharistic Liturgy and receiving Holy Communion should strengthen us to conform our lives more closely to the example of Christ. As Jesus knelt before his Apostles to wash their feet (see Jn 13), giving them an example of humble service, so must we who bear the name Christian live our lives in service to our brothers and sisters. To help us in this endeavor, Church Tradition has identified works of mercy. These fourteen practices demand great sacrifice and generosity, but they also draw us more deeply into conformity with the Lord. Focusing on one of these works each week may be a practical way to integrate them into our personal, family, and parish lives.

Corporal Works of Mercy

Feeding the hungry

Sheltering the homeless

Clothing the naked

Visiting the sick

Visiting the imprisoned

Giving drink to the thirsty

Burying the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

Converting sinners

Instructing the ignorant

Advising the doubtful

Comforting the sorrowful

Bearing wrongs patiently

Forgiving injuries

Praying for the living and dead

Our parishes and civil communities offer numerous opportunities to live out these works, from assisting with religious education classes or volunteering at a food bank to encouraging our legislators to put forward policies that protect the life and dignity of each person. As we grow in conformity to Christ, we see more clearly that all people are made in the image and likeness of God (see Gn 1:26) and have an inherent value and dignity. By helping to build a more just and compassionate society, we act as Christ’s Body in the world.

It All Comes Back to the Eucharist

Living the Christian life is not easy. “What material food produces in our bodily life, Holy Communion wonderfully achieves in our spiritual life. Communion with the flesh of the risen Christ . . . preserves, increases, and renews the life of grace received at Baptism. This growth in Christian life needs the nourishment of Eucharistic Communion, the bread for our pilgrimage” (CCC, no. 1392).

And so, each Sunday, we return to the Eucharistic table, bringing all our efforts of the previous week, the good and the bad, the successes and the failures, the joys and the sorrows. We gather with our brothers and sisters in the Lord and, together with our priest, we join these efforts to the perfect sacrifice of Christ, asking that God will receive what we offer back to him in humble thanksgiving. The Catechism explains it as follows:

The Church which is the Body of Christ participates in the offering of her Head. With him, she herself is offered whole and entire. She unites herself to his intercession with the Father for all men. In the Eucharist the sacrifice of Christ becomes also the sacrifice of the members of his Body. The lives of the faithful, their praise, sufferings, prayer, and work, are united with those of Christ and with his total offering, and so acquire a new value. Christ’s sacrifice present on the altar makes it possible for all generations of Christians to be united with his offering. (CCC, no. 1368)

Then, strengthened by Holy Communion, we are once again sent forth into the world to glorify the Lord in our lives.

Greeting Ministers Needed for 4:30 Mass:
We need 6 more friendly faces to complete our greeting ministry roster at the 4:30 Mass.  This is such an important ministry, as we welcome all who pass through our doors on Sunday. It is very rewarding, as you have the opportunity to meet the face of Christ present in his people. You would be scheduled approximately every 3-4 weeks. For info, contact Iris Clark, iris.ccas@live.com.

Easiest ministry in the history of CCAS:
Father Isaiah Mary, the Voice of Catholic Cardinal reflections (the Podcast of the Catholic Community), is looking for a few able-bodied souls to go the 4:30 Mass, sit in one of the lofts during the Liturgy of the Word, and press two buttons, one before & one after, the preaching of that Sunday. In other words, he’s looking for some sound techs. If you are interested in BECOMING FAMOUS, contact Fr. Isaiah Mary.

Ministry in Las Vegas:
We are excited to announce that we have a team of ten preparing to serve with the St. Therese Center, an HIV/AIDS ministry in Las Vegas. Six undergrads and two grads will join Lourdes Alonso and Fr. You can still get involved by praying for our team and/or helping provide cranberries for the 400 food boxes that will be distributed. The estimated cost of the cranberries is $600. Any amount you give will help our team provide this sweet ingredient. Contact Lourdes Alonso, lalonso@stanford.edu, for more information.

THIRTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 20, 2011

Gathering
The King Shall Come (J. Hirten)

First Reading  Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

The Lord said, “I will look after my sheep. As a shepherd I will tend my flock. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy or dark. I will pasture them, give them rest, bring back the strays and heal the sick.”

Second Reading  1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28

Paul wrote to the Corinthians, “Just as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will come to life again. Christ must reign until the last enemy, death, is destroyed, so that God may be all in all.”

Gospel Acclamation  Mass From Age to Age (De Silva)

Gospel  Matthew 25:31-46

As a shepherd separates sheep from goats, so will the son of Man come in glory to separate those who fed the hungry from those who did not. “As often as you did it to one of these little ones, you did it to me.”
