Catholic Community at Stanford
The mission of the Catholic Community at Stanford (CC@S) is to develop and form well educated, passionate, and faithful Catholic leaders in order to bring positive change to their disciplines, communities, Church, and world.
At the same time his response is far more radical and further reaching than any act of direct political action. In giving to God what belongs to God Jesus makes possible a total transformation, which changes us on every level of our being. The life of faith, hope and love moves us not only to render to civil authorities what in justice is required, but to work for the transformation of society by going beyond the demands of justice. This often requires great personal courage and self-sacrifice. And so it is right that each Sunday we pray for those who serve us in political society, and that we respect them. It also encourages us to become involved in society, to use our own gifts in the service of other, so that we may co-operate with Jesus Christ in building his Kingdom.

fr. David Goodill OP teaches at the Dominican Studium in Oxford and at St Mary’s College, Oscott.

Good News About You!

Gallup has a wonderful book called “Living Your Strengths”, and by using a unique code in the book you can take an online inventory that identifies your top 5 signature talents. Each person is richly blessed. You are using these talents even now, but people often don’t recognize what their talents are and misuse them. With knowledge and practice you can turn those talents into strengths, i.e. near perfect performance. “Strength Finders” is also a wonderful way of learning how to understand and appreciate others.

We would investigate your leadership talents. Everyone is a leader at one time or another. Let’s explore how you can use your talents in leadership. My proposal is simple. I would be willing to conduct in your homes mini-workshops. Gather a small group of permanent community members or just friends, and at a time convenient for your group, I would lead you in taking the inventory and in applying the results. We would meet three or four times, and explore!

YOUNG ADULTS
a way of life

Sunday, October 19, 2014

As indicated many times previously in these reflections, it is difficult to reflect comprehensively on the totality of the readings for a particular Sunday, and it is often more effective to focus our thoughts on something smaller, although significant. Saint Paul’s letter to the Thessalonians, our second reading, offers one of those insights. Most scholars believe that the letter to the people of Thessalonica, Greece (the Thessalonians) was perhaps the first of the many letters Paul wrote. Note that in his opening greeting, Paul makes it from not just himself, but from Silvanus and Timothy as well. As successful as Paul was as an evangelist and an apostle, he recognized early on that it was not something he could do or accomplish alone. In addition to God’s help, St. Paul gathered a team around him, which he used and empowered in many ways. Sometimes each of us may think we are more efficient operating alone. Stewardship on the other hand calls us to see that we are part of a community, and that community can accomplish more as a group than any one of us can individually. That is the strength of community stewardship, a faith-filled people working hand in hand to build the Kingdom of God. There is a Tibetan proverb which states, “If you help someone to the top of the mountain, you reach the peak also.”

Offertory  You Will I Love, My Strength  J. Scheffler

You will I love, my strength, my tower;
You will I love, my hope, my joy;
You will I love with all my power,
With fervor time cannot destroy.
You will I love, O Light divine,
So long as life is mine.

You will I love, my life, my Savior,
You are my best, my truest friend;
You will I love and praise forever,
For never shall your kindness end.
Your love for me casts out my fear,
You are my Savior dear.

I thank you, Jesus, sun from heaven,
Whose radiance has brought light to me;
I thank you, who has richly given
All that could make me glad and free.
I thank you that my soul is healed
With love that you revealed.

Oh, keep me watchful, then, and humble,
And never suffer me to stray;
Uphold me when my feet would stumble,
And keep me faithful to your way.
Fill all my nature with your light,
O Radiance strong and bight!

You will I love, my crown of gladness;
You will I love, my god and Lord,
Within the darkest depths of sadness,
And not for hope of high reward
For your own sake, O Light divine,
So long as life is mine!

Sanctus  Mass From Age to Age  de Silva
